169th Annual Convention

THE CHURCH OF THE HOLY TRINITY, PHILADELPHIA

MONDAY, MAY 4, 1953 5:00 P.M.

The One Hundred Sixty-ninth Annual Convention of the Protestant Episcopal Church in The Diocese of Pennsylvania assembled at The Church of The Holy Trinity, Philadelphia, on Monday, May 4, 1953 at 5:00 P.M., in accordance with the Constitution and the Resolution of the last Convention.

The Bishop of the Diocese called the Convention to order and opened the session with prayer.

A Quorum being present the Rev. Dr. Charles H. Long was duly elected Secretary and the Rev. Dr. John R. Huggins was appointed Assistant Secretary of the Convention.

The Rev. William Roulston McKean, chairman, presented the Report of The Committee on the Dispatch of Business which on Motion was adopted as follows:

Your Committee presents herewith its suggested program for the dispatch of business during the Convention.

In order to expedite the order of business, your Committee suggests that all Reports be made by title where feasible, and as an effort is to be made to transact the work of Convention in one full day, that discussion be curtailed as far as possible.

Should the Business of the Convention be not completed at 5:30 P.M. on Tuesday, May 5, 1953, a Recess shall be taken at that hour until 7:45 P.M. Should further time be required, Convention shall meet again on Wednesday, May 6, 1953, at 9:30 A.M.

The Rev. B. Janney Rudderow presented the Report of the Committee on Arrangements which was adopted.

The Secretary reported that there was no unfinished business.

The Secretary announced that the Memorial adopted at the last Diocesan Convention requesting General Convention to amend Canon 5 so as to change the time required for presenting the Annual Reports of congregations from February 1st to March 1st had been presented by the Deputies of Diocese. General Convention did not approve.

The Secretary read the Canon of Courtesy as follows:

Clergymen canonically resident in this Diocese but not entitled to vote in the Convention, Clergymen of other Dioceses of this Church, Candidates for Holy Orders in this Church, Wardens of Missions other than those entitled to send Deputies, and all persons holding any office or trust under the Convention, including the Lay Members of the Standing Committee, the Officers of the Executive Council and the Executive Officer of the Philadelphia Protestant Episcopal City Mission, though not members, shall be admitted to seats and have a voice in the Convention, but not the right to vote.

The Secretary reported further:

Alternates have no seats, or votes in Convention except when they register with the Assistant Secretary certifying they are authorized to take the place of the elected deputy.

The Secretary reported as follows:

During the past year the Secretary has fulfilled his duties as prescribed by the Constitution and Canons as far as possible.

On December 24, 1952 the Parochial Reports were mailed and that on Febrary 1st, 1953 when these reports were due only 76 of the 207 had been received. The Secretary would again stress the importance of making full returns on the Annual Report of the Diocese for the General Convention.

That under date of March 2, 1953 he sent out the Calls and other Documents for the 169th Annual Convention.

The boxes for the registration of the Clerical and Lay Deputies have been placed in the vestibule of the Church and all Deputies should register at once.

That on May 4, 1953 Parishes, Missions and Chapels of the Diocese entitled to membership in this convention had not qualified as follows:

Of the 153 Parishes the following has not sent in the Certificate for Lay Deputies and therefore has no lay Deputy in this Convention:

St. John Chrysostom.

The Rev. Wm. Roulston McKean offered the following Resolution, which on Motion was adopted:

RESOLVED, That the right of Representation in this Convention of those Parishes which have not sent Parochial Reports, or have not paid their Assessments, be declared forfeited; but that they be invited to present to the Committee on Claims of Laity to Seats any facts which seem to them to justify a restoration of such rights of Representation; and, that the said Committee be instructed to consider such facts and make appropriate recommendations to the Convention; and that meanwhile the Lay Representatives from said Parishes be invited to take their seats, but to refrain from participating in the proceedings until the Convention shall have restored the right of Representation of their Parishes.

The President appointed the following Committees:

Committee on Special Resolutions.

The Rev. Neville Herbert Caley, Convener

The Report of the Committee on Constitution and Canons (Appendix N, page 275, 287) was read by the Rev. Ralph E. Coonrad who offered the Following Resolution, which on Motion was adopted:

The Department of Christian Social Relations has submitted to the Committee on Canons a sub-paragraph and certain other provisions which the Department proposes as a substitute for Canon VI, Sec. II, sub-paragraph 3 (c) of the Diocesan Canons. The original draft of the substitution read:

This would replace Canon VI, of the Executive Council, Section II, 3 (c).

(c) The Department of Christian Social Relations shall encourage and promote all branches of social service work and programs of social relations in the Diocese. Its specific duties shall be as follows:

(1) Carry on such social service work and programs of social relations as the Convention and/or Executive Council shall from time to time assign to it.

(2) Foster the work of health and welfare agencies related to the Church in whatever manner the Bishop may deem expedient, especially in their relationships to the clergy, the parishes and to the community.

(3) Interest and enlist the Church people of the Diocese in the study and remedy of social conditions, social needs, and social problems.

(4) Perform the duties outlined above in close cooperation with local and national agencies for social welfare, both secular and religious; except that in performing its duties the Department shall work in cooperation only with those agencies approved in each instance by the Bishop and a majority of the total Department membership.

The Committee on Canons has considered the proposed enactment, and herewith submits its report and recommendations.

It was generally agreed that the proposed law as drafted by the Department contained certain clauses in it which are not proper for inclusion in Canons. The Committee on Canons agreed that certain of the provisions of the proposed law (such as (3) etc.) relate merely to advice and suggestion, are therefore unenforcable as law, and quite improper material for Canons.

It was the opinion of a majority of the Committee on Canons that a redraft of the Department's proposal, incorporating general directives as to the functions, authority, and purposes of the Department, is actually what the Department seeks to attain. This Committee has made a redraft of the Proposed substitution, incorporating in it certain of those provisions suggested by the Department, which, in the opinion of the Committee on Canons, are proper materials for Canons.

It is moved to rescind sub-paragraph 3 (c), Section II, Canon VI of the 1951 Diocesan Canons, which reads as follows:

"(c) The Department of Christian Social Relations shall carry on such social service work and program of social relations as the Convention shall from time to time assign to it."

It is further moved to enact the following legislation in substitution for sub-paragraph 3 (c), Section II, of Canon VI of the 1951 Code:

(c) The Department of Christian Social Relations shall carry on and promote all phases of social (including health) work and programs of social relations in this Diocese, subject to the Diocesan Convention, or the Bishop and Executive Council. The Department is herewith empowered to perform these duties in close cooperation with national and local social welfare agencies, both secular and religious;

PROVIDED that cooperation be limited to those agencies which shall have been approved by the Bishop and a majority of the total membership of the Department.

The Committee on Canons moves the adoption of the above substitute legislation for sub-Paragraph 3 (c), Section II, Canon VI of the 1951 Code.

The Committee on Constitution and Canons reported upon the proposed amendment to the Constitution submitted by the Rev. G. W. Wickersham, i.e. That the words "Lay Persons" be substituted for the word "Laymen" in sentence one of Article IV of the Constitution of this Diocese.

After discussion and consultation with the Chancellor, on Motion it was Resolved; That the proposed amendment to the Constitution be referred to a Special Committee to be appointed by the Bishop of the Diocese to be reported later to the Convention. Let us pray:

Grant, O Lord to thy servants eternal rest, and let thy light perpetual shine upon them.

Almighty God, our Heavenly Father, who hast called us to faith in thee, and hast compassed us about with so great a cloud of witnesses; Grant that we, encouraged by the good example of thy Saints, and especially of thy servants whom we remember before thee, may persevere in running the race that is set before us, until at length, through thy mercy, we, with them, attain to thine eternal joy; through him who is the author and finisher of our faith, thy Son Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Recently in a sermon at the consecration of a bishop, the preacher said, "Soon this new bishop, as he faces the administrative task of this diocese, will find himself saying, "What shall I do with this diocese?" After he has been a bishop for ten years he will not be asking that question. Rather he will be saying, "Look, what this diocese has done to me!" After ten years as your bishop, I find my self wishing that I had had more wisdom in directing the work of the diocese. You have been generous in overlooking my sins of omission and commission. I am deeply grateful for your generosity in the celebration of my tenth anniversary last October. The Revolving Fund, raised by Dr. Shreiner and presented to me on that occasion, is serving a useful purpose in the diocese.

BISHOP'S REVOLVING FUND

Amount of Fund		$50,000.00
Loaned to St. Nathanael's, Allegheny and E Sts.	$6,000.00
Loaned to St. James, Prospect Park	15,000.00
Loaned to St. Andrew, Yardley	15,000.00
Loaned to St. Andrew, West Vincent	12,500.00
Loaned to a clergyman	850.00
		$49,350.00
Balance		$650.00

I am deeply grateful to Dr. Shreiner for all that he has done for the diocese, not only in raising this Revolving Fund but for his many years of faithful service as Chairman of the Field Department, Chairman of the Budget Committee and Dean of the Chester Convocation. He has requested that he be not nominated for any diocesan office because he wants to give full-time to the Church Farm School. This we can understand and respect and he retires from diocesan office with our sincere thanks for his splendid service.

Our neighbor, the Diocese of Delaware, has passed the half-way mark toward a revolving fund of $500,000.00. I wish that we had such a fund which we could loan without interest to parishes and missions to enable them to take advantage of present opportunities. St. Philip-in-the-fields, Oreland and St. Peter's, Broomall come to my mind at once.

Our parishes are not isolated units. We can certainly paraphrase St. Paul's words (1 Cor. 12:26) and say, "If one parish suffers, all the parishes in the diocese suffer with it." On the negative side, this is one of the reasons why you have diocesan canons making it necessary for a parish to get the approval of the Standing Committee before mortgaging its property. On the positive side this same truth is shown by ninety-eight parishes overpaying their Proportionate Share in 1952. This enabled your diocese to pay in full its Quota for the Missionary Work of the National Church and to end the year without a deficit in our own diocesan budget. This magnificent response on the part of so many parishes helps those parishes who found it to be impossible for them to give their Proportionate Share.

A layman said recently, "The history of our parish is our inspiration and the future of our parish is what we make it. After all, we are the Church. If there is work to be done, we should do it. If there is any credit to be ganied by a job well done, we should win it. The Church is not the building, not the Rector, not the Vestry, but all of us, each and every one of us, individually and collectively. We are the Church."

In conjunction with the Presiding Bishop's Committee on Laymen's Work we have asked every parish to appoint a Key Layman to act as liason officer between the National Council and the Parish. About sixty parishes have appointed their Key man and we hope that the rest of our parishes will do so soon. In some instances the Key man is the Chairman of the Every Member Canvass, but he need not be. His work covers a much broader field than that of the Every Member Canvass. Mr. Angus, Vice Chairman of the Field Department, will speak to you tomorrow about the work of the Key men. We were one of the last dioceses to form a group of Key men as part of the Presiding Bishop's Committee on Laymen's Work. I am responsible for this delay because I did not want to ask the clergy to appoint a Key man until I had a fairly clear idea of what the Key man was to do. I now believe that these men can be a great source of strength to their parishes. When our Conference Center is in operation we plan to have these Key men meet to study how our common work can be done more effectively.

I have appointed a Committee on the business administration of the Conference Center. This Committee will not have anything to do with planning the conferences which we will hold at the Center when the same is turned over to the diocese. I have asked this Committee to prepare an operating budget for running the Center and to keep the diocese posted as to the money available for this purpose. At present we have $49,853.13 set aside for the equipment and maintenance of the Center.

Bishop Powell of Maryland, in his Convention Address in January said, "In February of last year the Bishop Claggett Conference Center was opened. Its first official use was for a Retreat for the Clergy of the Diocese. Since that time, the Center has been in constant operation and our experience indicates clearly that here is one of the most precious and useful of our facilities. What can be done in years to come in unifying our Diocesan family by bringing all parts of it together for study and planning, for meditation and prayer, for recreation and fellowship, is beyond our dreams. We are well embarked upon the use of this great gift." I believe that some day I shall be able to make a similar report to you about our Diocesan Conference Center.

During the past year the Chapter of the Cathedral Church of Christ, Roxborough have tried to improve our facilities for the congregation now worshipping there. The Rev. William LaRue Witmer is giving full time as vicar and there is a growing congregation. I do not know when we will have the funds for additional building at the Cathedral. Such funds, it seems to me, will have to come from special gifts and bequests and not from an intensive campaign. A trustee of the Cathedral of St. John the Divine told me that one of the wisest things that they ever did was to insist that for every dollar spent on construction, a dollar had to be put into the endowment fund. The result has been that the maintenance of the Cathedral and the support of the staff have not been a drain upon the resources of the diocese. I hope that we will follow the same policy in this diocese.

The daughters of the late Mr. Samuel F. Houston have given his home, "Druim Moir" for a home for clergymen and their wives. Mrs. Henry P. Brown plans to endow the Home. A Board of Trustees has been formed to operate the Home and we hope to open the same in the very near future. On Tuesday, June 9th, the Woman's Auxiliary of the Convocation of Germantown will hold their annual Garden Day at the Home. This will afford a splendid opportunity for all members of the diocese to visit the Home.

I want to thank the diocese for the help that they gave last year to St. Thomas' Church, West Philadelphia toward their rebuilding program. The Whitsunday Offering amounted to $27,220. and the Church School Advent Offering for Sunday School equipment amounted to $1,915.04. This makes a total of $29,135.04. You may remember that at the last Diocesan Convention you expressed the hope of giving St. Thomas' $65,000. For that reason, the Executive Council requested that the parishes of the diocese be given another opportunity this Whitsunday to make an offering for St. Thomas'. I think that I dislike special offerings as much as anyone in the diocese, but in view of the magnificent work which the congregation of St. Thomas' has done and is doing, I feel that the people of the diocese should be at least given the opportunity of expressing our fellowship with this splendid group. The total rebuilding program to date has cost St. Thomas' about $210,000. They are having to raise about $4,000 a month in order to repay their loans and mortgages. They are doing this in a very wonderful way. The United Thank Offering of the National Church has given them $5,000 and I am in hopes that enough parishes will take part in the Whitsunday Offering this year to give them an additional $10,000. Special envelopes for that purpose can be secured from the Church House.

Last year I called your attention to the fact that the confirmations in 1951 were 2,745, considerably less than the minimum goal of 4,000 which you set for yourselves in the previous Diocesan Convention. In 1952 there was a noticeable increase, the number being 3,653. This is only 347 short of your minimum goal.

I am not particularly interested in numbers but two things should be kept in mind. If the communicant strength of this diocese is anywhere near 75,000, it takes about 21 Episcopalians to bring one to confirmation. Meanwhile I read where one young Communist converted 249 of her fellow students! If in your parish every ten communicants brought one to confirmation, our total of confirmations would be doubled.

The second thing is one which all bishops are apt to refer to in their Annual Address, namely, that the communicant strength of the diocese does not increase with the number of confirmations. In 1942 we reported 76,275 communicants. In 1951 we reported 79,654. I am sorry that I cannot give you the figures for 1952 but some of you were unable to get your Annual Reports to me in time for me to get the figure. I suppose that it will be somewhere in the neighborhood of 80,000. This will mean a growth of only 3,725 in the last ten years and yet during that time we have had 28,890 confirmations. Allowing for those who have died or moved from the diocese, obviously 3,725 does not represent the difference between the number of those who have died or moved away and those confirmed. The plain fact is that many of those confirmed drift away from the Church. Once again I urge vestries to go over their parish list, with their rector, once a year to make sure that they know what is happening to those confirmed. A vestryman of mine once asked me to give him the names of twelve communicants who were on the periphery of the parish life so that he could visit them. His report to me was, "I have learned enough from those visits to make me a better vestryman." Such activity on the part of the congregation will not keep everyone active in the parish but I am convinced that it will help tremendously.

There are a host of irregularities in the Episcopal Church. From time to time I am asked to make this clergyman or that clergyman quit disregarding the rubrics in the Prayer Book and the Canons of the Church. I have also been reminded more than once that such charges of irregularity should be made against me as Bishop for permitting them or indulging in them. Brethren, I confess to you my part in such irregularities. I am sure that we all would be more law-abiding if we were better practicing Churchmen rather than academic Churchmen. I am not impressed by the person who thinks that the Episcopal Church is the true Church and yet does not throw his whole life into the life of his parish. If we sincerely try to bring at least one person to confirmation every year, if we bear our witness by searching for non-Church people in our community and endeavoring to bring them into the fellowship, if we give of our ability and time and graciousness of personality to make our parish a radiant center of Christ's power, then I believe we can arrive at a reasonable and happy solution of our differences in Churchmanship. Let us live the religion of the Prayer Book and we can, as brethren in the household of faith, agee to abide by the rubrics.

It is a moving thought that God has called us to be co-workers with Him in the redemption of the world through Christ. The world desperately needs a vital redemptive Church. God calls us in His power not simply to enjoy the spiritual treasures which He has given to His Church, He calls us to use our ability and time to create a more and more vital Christian fellowship.

One of you wrote to me recently, "God's human family on this planet is going through the greatest test of its long historic struggle upward. The majority of mankind is still Moslem, Buddhist, Hindu, pagan, crassly materialistic or atheistic. Only a minority is Christian by profession, and a minority of this minority takes its responsibilities really seriously. We have just passed through two world wars, which were sponsored by countries in which the Christian Church had been at work for centuries. The present cold war is even worse than former hot ones, and the Church of Christ is being laughed at and ill-treated as of no enduring significance in human affairs."

If the Church of Christ is being laughed at and ill-treated as of no enduring significance, how far are we responsible for this sad state of affairs? A parish once placed on its bulletin board a poster which said, "Come and worship with us." Someone wrote underneath, "Why?" That is the fundamental question which you and I must answer.

In the Saturday Review for February 25th there was an editorial entitled, "Has the Church Failed?" Mr. Norman Cousins, the distinguished editor of that periodical, contended that the Church had not yet found the means to make man move from theology to action—action that is morally effective and effectively moral. Mr. Cousins was concerned primarily with the fact that the Church had not been able, in this age of saturating frustration, to bring about some form of world government. He said, "Scientific progress has created an even greater challenge to spiritual man than it has to political man. If science has suddenly brought all peoples within a single small enclosure with the option to make it into a single battlefield or a single neighborhood, it has also brought about the supreme test for the world's great religions."

None of us would deny that unless the fundamental unity of mankind is expressed in effective action on a world scale, catastrophe will soon befall the whole human race. We need the Church so that common counsel, taken in God's presence, may be communicated from Christian to Christian across all barriers of nation, race, class or culture. But if this is to be done, it must be done in the local parish or it will not be done at all. A strong world Church will be one of strong parishes. Therefore, when we ask if the Church is what she should be, let us be specific and think in terms of our own parish.

The Church's job is to bind its people together in a vital, friendly and growing relationship with God and with their fellowmen. Its job is to take men where they live and help them to become the persons God intended them to be. And men and women live in parishes. They need God's grace and power to live a Christian life, and that grace of power comes or should come to them through the worship, the sacraments and the fellowship of their parish. I believe in the Church because I know that God through His Church releases the power to change human nature. Whenever the Church has been loyal and faithful to her trust, she has been a transforming power.

Think of your own parish in the light of the early Church as described in the second chapter of the Acts of the Apostles. Verse 1—"When the day of Pentecost came around, while they were all gathered together in unity of purpose"—a marked characteristic of the Christian fellowship was unity of purpose. Again verse 42—"They occupied themselves continually with the apostles' teaching, their fellowship in the breaking of bread, and the fixed times of prayer." There was unity of spirit. Again verse 32—"God has raised up this man, Jesus, from the dead; we are all witnesses of it." There was unity of witness. Unity of purpose, unity of spirit, and unity of witness—wherever you find a parish with those three characteristics, you find a vital Christian parish, a fellowship of the Holy Spirit. A young couple, whose little child had died recently, told me, "We could not have lived through this experience except for this parish." The psalmist cried out, "No man cared for my soul." (Ps. 142:4). I thank God that this young couple, newly confirmed, found a parish which is a company of those who care. We are told, (Acts 4:33) "Great was the power with which the apostles testified to the resurrection of our Lord Jesus Christ, and great was the grace that rested on them all." The most effective way to carry out the Great Commission to bear witness is to demonstrate a true fellowship.

I would have you bear this in mind as we transact the business of this Convention. We have to adopt a budget for 1954; we shall probably amend a few canons and pass a few resolutions; we shall elect various diocesan officers. These are all necessary for the proper ordering of our life. But I pray that we shall have uppermost in our minds and hearts our dependence upon God for His guidance and strength that by His grace we may go forward as a Fellowship of the Holy Spirit.

Let us pray:

Almighty God, our heavenly Father, Who has promised the power and presence of Thy Spirit to all who go forth in Thy Name, We beseech Thee on behalf of Thy Church, that, emboldened by that same Spirit, we may live in our day, as those who have some good thing to impart unto it. Deepen the quality of our individual and collective witness. Let the spirit of Jesus flow from us in ever-widening waves of influence. Give us some humble place among the servants of Thy will that by our fidelity at this time, sinners may be converted to Thee and the bounds of Thy Kingdom enlarged, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Report of the Standing Committee to the Convention

At the stated meeting of the Standing Committee held on May 27, 1952, the Committee received the report of the Secretary of Convention that Convention had elected Mr. P. Blair Lee as a member of the Standing Committee for a term of five years. The Convention not reaching a concurrent vote on the clerical vacancy, authorized the Standing Committee to fill this vacancy, which it did at the same meeting, electing the Rev. Dr. Chauncey E. Snowden for one year.

The Rev. Dr. Franklin Joiner was elected President of the Standing Committee and Mr. William H. DuBarry was elected Secretary.

The President appointed the following committees:

Budget Committee: Dr. Niblo, Mr. Clay.

Committee on those qualified for election to the Episcopate: Dr. Groton, Mr. Ervin.

Committee concerning the qualifications of Postulants and Candidates for Holy Orders, the Diaconate, and the Priesthood: Dr. West, Dr. Snowden, Mr. DuBarry.

The death of Mr. Samuel F. Houston on May 2, 1952, was regretfully noted by the Standing Committee and the following minute sent to his family:

Samuel Frederick Houston died at his home, "Druim Moir" in St. Martin's, May 2nd, 1952. He was the oldest member of the Standing Committee of the Diocese of Pennsylvania both in age and in years of service. It is hard to envisage the Standing Committee without Mr. Houston. His long and intimate acquaintance with the Diocese, and through the General Convention his wide knowledge of the whole Church, Bishops, Priests, and Laymen, made his contribution to the Standing Committee an invaluable one. Our meetings were enlivened by his reminiscenses, and many a tense moment was relieved by one of his pertinent anecdotes. As Chairman of the sub-committee to report on those elected to the Episcopate he was thorough in presenting to the Committee the fullest details concerning the Bishops-elect, and always brought to the Committee's attention some personal knowledge, if not his own, some that he had secured from a friend or acquaintance. Busy man that he was in his many cultural and banking interests, he was most faithful in his attendance at all meetings, always punctual, and prepared with whatever assignment had been alloted to him.

We shall miss him not only as a counsellor and a fellow member of the Standing Committee but as a friend. We are proud to have known and to have had this happy association with him. We assure his family of our reverence for his memory, and pray that he may continue to grow in God's love and service.

Mr. Houston had been a member of the Sanding Committee since March, 1906.

The Standing Committee consented to the ordination and consecration of:

The Venerable William Crittenden as Bishop of the Diocese of Erie;
The Very Reverend Hamilton Hyde Kellogg, D.D., as Bishop Coadjutor of the Diocese of Minnesota;
The Very Reverend Frederick John Warnecke, B.A., S.T.M., as Bishop Coadjutor of the Diocese of Bethlehem;
The Reverend John Seville Higgins, D.D., as Bishop Coadjutor of the Diocese of Rhode Island;

The Reverend Leland William Frederick Stark, Th.B., as Bishop Coadjutor of the Diocese of Newark;

The Standing Committee gave its consent to St. Andrew's Church, Yardley, to place a mortgage, not to exceed $14,000, on its Church building, the parish house, and rectory in order to purchase another rectory at 55 West Afton Avenue, Yardley.

The Standing Committee gave its consent to the Church of the Holy Comforter, Aronimink Park, to place a mortgage in the amount of $55,000 on the Church property in order to make certain alterations and additions to the Church building.

The Standing Committee gave its consent to All Saints Church, Rhawnhurst, to sell its rectory at 1908 Stanwood Street, Philadelphia, the proceeds of the sale to be used for the building of a new rectory. The Standing Committee also gave its consent to the placing of a construction mortgage on the new rectory to be built by all Saints Church, Rhawnhurst, on the N. E. corner of Loney and Frontenac Streets, Philadelphia, at a cost of approximately $32,000.

The Standing Committee approved the request made by St. James's Church, Green Ridge, to rent space in the Church building to the Ashton Township School District for school purposes.

The Standing Committee gave its consent to the Bishop to sell the property of the Church of St. John Chrysostum, it being understood that the Bishop would ask the counsel and advice of the Standing Committee concerning the use of the proceeds of the sale.

The Standing Committee directed the Church Foundation to purchase the property at 7737 St. Martin's Lane, Chestnut Hill, Philadelphia, as a residence for the Bishop, for the sum of $30,000. Of this sum $20,351.55 was received from the Episcopal Residences Fund and the remainder from the Suspense Account of the Fund for the Support of the Episcopate. The Treasurer was authorized to spend up to $4,000 from the Suspense Account of the Fund for the Support of the Episcopate for necessary repairs to the house.

The Standing Committee gave its consent to St. James's Church, Prospect Park, to place a mortgage on the present rectory at 11th and Lincoln Avenues, Prospect Park, if necessary, in connection with the purchase of the adjoining property, and to lease said property until some future date when and if the need for expansion presents itself.

The Standing Committee gave its consent to St. David's Church, Manayunk, to place a mortgage not exceeding $10,000 upon property contemplated to be purchased as a rectory for said Church, said mortgage to be reduced by the net proceeds of the sale of the present rectory, at 154 Krams Avenue, Philadelphia, or $5,000, whichever is greater, at the time of the receipt of the proceeds of the sale of the present rectory.

The Standing Committee gave its consent to St. Peter's Church, Glenside, to mortgage its Parish House or its Sexton's House or both, in an amount not to exceed $7,500, this to be done by either one or two mortgages, one mortgage of $7,500 or two mortgages, the present one of $4,500 and an additional one for $3,000.

The Standing Committee disapproved the request of the Church of the Holy Sacrament, Highland Park, for the consent of the Standing Committee to the placing of an additional mortgage upon the Church property, and it suggested that the Parish confer with the Committee on Financial Safeguards concerning its financial condition. The Secretary of the Standing Committee was directed to send a letter to the Church of the Holy Sacrament, Highland Park, embodying these suggestions.

APPENDIX G

REPORT OF THE TREASURER OF THE DIOCESE FOR THE YEAR 1952

The report of the Treasurer of the Diocese of Pennsylvania for the year 1952 is submitted herewith. This report is more detailed than the one prepared by Charles S. Rockey & Co., certified public accountants, based on their audit of our financial books and records, a copy of which may be examined at the Church House.

For the sake of simplicity, round numbers are used in the following comments.

The 1952 missionary budget was increased $20,000 to $478,000. We started the year with concern because the accepted proportionate shares were $29,000 less than the budget. We ended the year with all bills paid and were able to place in missionary suspense account $10,700 vs $14,500 in 1951. This carryover was due to several factors, the principal of which were:

A. We spent $20,000 less than the budget, leaving us $9,000 short instead of the expected $29,000.

B. Ninety eight churches and missions paid $18,400 more than their accepted proportionate shares. Each one of this group deserves the heartfelt thanks of the Diocese for their loyalty and self-sacrifice.

Had the nineteen churches which fell $5,400 under their accepted proportionate shares fulfilled their indicated ability to pay, our financial position would have been correspondingly improved. Fortunately, these underpayments were offset by money received from trust accounts and miscellaneous givings.

The missionary suspense fund supplied $14,600 for various diocesan missionary projects not covered by the 1952 budget.

Since the collection for St. Thomas' Church in West Philadelphia amounted to only $26,700, far less than needed and hoped for, the Executive Council authorized an advance of $40,000 as a loan from the missionary surplus fund, with an agreement for repayment in installments of $1,000 quarterly, one of which has already been met.

The Treasurer here records his thanks to Mr. William G. Foulke, Assistant Treasurer since 1950, who because of the press of business, civic and other church duties feels he is unable to continue after the expiration of his present term. His knowledge of finance and his calm and discerning judgment have served the Diocese well.

The staff in the Church House have continued to perform their duties in their usual efficient and loyal manner.

Respectfully submitted,

FREDERICK R. DRAYTON

APPENDIX H

DEPARTMENT OF FINANCE, PROPERTY AND PROMOTION

REPORT OF THE DEPARTMENT OF FINANCE

The Department of Finance met bi-monthly except during the summer of 1952 and gave constant thought and study to the many financial problems confronting the Diocese throughout the year.

The Department of Property and the Department of Promotion are sub departments under Finance. Their Reports are separate.

The Committee on Financial Safeguards, a sub-committee of the Department of Finance, meets at the call of the chair and its report will be found elsewhere in the JOURNAL.

The Department notes with pleasure that all bills of the Diocese and its Expectation to the National Council for 1952, have been paid in full. The Diocese had accepted the $308,614.00 assigned by the National Council.

The Department was much concerned towards the end of the year, that there would be a large deficit in the Missionary Budget. The Rectors and Vicars were notified of the need with the result that ninety nine churches overpaid their "Share" to the amount of $19,000. To prevent a reoccurrence of a threatened deficit the Department has asked each church to volunteer a 5% increase on its "Accepted Share."

The Treasurer's Report is most gratifying showing the breakdown of the "Givings." Mr. Drayton, Treasurer, gives personal interest to the Finances of the Diocese and is helpful in the discussions which take place at the meetings of the Department.

The Chairman expresses his appreciation to the officers of the Diocese and the members of the Department for their splendid cooperation during the past year.

EDWARD B. CLAY,
Chairman

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON FINANCIAL SAFEGUARDS

Messrs. Charles S. Rockey and Company have again extended to the Diocese their low cost audit plan, and the forms for acceptance are now being sent to the Parishes and Missions.

At the time of writing this report, six Churches that have not had a CPA audit during the last two years, have accepted this plan, and if the rate at which these acceptances are being received is any indication, this year might set a new record for audits. Some vestries still do not realize that Canon XVI is a requirement for an audit, it is not optional.

Page #7 of the new Parochial Report, contains questions pertaining to insurance coverage. Some accounting wardens claim they do not know the value of the Church, parish house and rectory buildings nor the correct amounts for which these buildings should be insured. Your broker or insurance carrier can determine the present insurable values for you and in the case of the Church Fire Insurance Corporation an annual report is (or will be on request) made, advising you of the replacement costs, less depreciation and the sound insurable value, this latter being the amount of insurance that should be carried.

Despite warnings there are still 19 Churches that admit to being underinsured. A fire of any magnitude would put these Churches in a position where they could not begin to replace their buildings and would not be able to hold services.

At times the reply is made that "We are carrying all the insurance that we can pay for." In most cases of underinsurance however, this is not the entire reason, but simply a lack of knowledge as to the correct amount to be carried.

With the serious loss of a West Philadelphia Church before all of us, and the difficulties that beset the Rector and congregation in trying to raise large sums of money to rebuild, their experience should be ample warning to all vestries to completely overhaul their insurance program, and to do it now.

This Committee can only point out the folly of being underinsured. Many vestries do not know that extended coverage, when added to the policies, takes care of certain contingencies that could cause serious losses to you. A recent oil burner backfire, damaging the heater, ceiling and sidewalls of the parish house basement, and the injury to curtains and decorations of the interior was covered under this extended coverage clause, and the Church was spared a considerable outlay to restore the heater and interior of the parish house. Each year sees an increase in the number of parishes complying with Canon XVI, which the Committee On Financial Safeguards appreciate.

EDWARD B. CLAY,
Chairman

REPORT OF THE DEPARTMENT OF PROPERTY

During the year 1952 we completed the purchase of two acres of land near Roelofs Station in Bucks County to be used for future development in that area. We cooperated with the congregation of St. Andrews, West Vincent, in the purchase of ground opposite the church for parking purposes and bought a house at 8615 Eastwick Avenue for a rectory for St. Titus Mission. The property at 37 Fortune Lane, Levittown was acquired as a rectory for a church to be built in that town during the ensuing twelve months.

In that connection we accepted a grant of about two and one-half acres of land from the Levittown Corporation at the corner of the Oxford-Tullytown Road and the Mill Creek Boulevard with the stipulation that we commence actual building within a year. Architects are preparing drawings to be submitted to our Diocesan Committee of Architects for approval shortly. At the direction of the Standing Committee we arranged for the purchase of 7737 St. Martin's Lane, Chestnut Hill to be used as the Episcopal Residence.

Our Committee of Architects approved final plans for the Church of St. Andrew's, Somerton and construction has started.

Mr. George D. Widener presented the Bishop and the Diocese with seven very beautiful stained glass windows from the Chapel of the Widener Memorial Home, which have been designed for use in a proposed new church building to be erected at St. Philip-in-the-Fields, Oreland.

General repairs have been supervised and attended to at All Saints, Fallsington, St. Ambrose, Kensington, St. Anne's, Willow Grove, St. Cyprian's rectory, St. Georges, West Philadelphia, St. Mary's rectory, Chester, St. Monica's, St. Titus rectory and Trinity, Gulph Mills.

The Church House has been maintained in good condition.

RONALD J. MCCARTHY, Chairman
Department of Property

REPORT OF THE DEPARTMENT OF PUBLICITY

Public relations activity during and after the Bryan Green Mission had scarcely subsided before another major Diocesan project began to take shape in preparation for The Christian Living Conferences. The Department of Publicity was contacted by the newspapers during 1952 on frequent occasions to provide messages from the Bishop of the Diocese for publication in connection with special events and seasonal observances.

The year was a good one for the Church News, which occupies the office staff of the Department of Publicity day in and day out throughout the year. There has been a gradual growth in the news content, in advertising, and in circulation.

This matter of circulation is of prime importance. Less than ten years ago about 3,500 copies of each issue were printed. In December, 1952, we printed 7,300 copies. This is real progress; but the ultimate goal: "A copy of THE CHURCH NEWS in the home of every Church family in the Diocese," has not yet been reached. Some of the clergy are most cooperative in this direction; but in some parishes and missions the leaders are not as enthusiastic in encouraging the Church News habit as they might be.

More articles and items about more parishes, missions, and institutions were printed in 1952 than ever before. This is reflected in the growing size of the magazine, which consisted of 24 pages and cover in December, 1952. In spite of higher costs and greater quantities of production, additional subscription and advertising revenue enabled THE CHURCH NEWS to end the year in sound financial condition, as will be shown in our financial statement.

R. MARSHALL TRUITT,
Chairman

REPORT OF THE FIELD DEPARTMENT

In 1952 your Field Department enlarged its membership by the addition of a number of active laymen whose interest and enthusiasm have already put new life into its program. Mr. Richard A. Angus of Trinity Memorial, Philadelphia was appointed Co-Chairman succeeding Mr. Frederic C. Wheeler of All Saints, Wynnewood who had resigned. Together with Mr. Henry C. Beck of Christ Church, Media, Mr. Angus attended the Provincial Training Conference for Laymen which was held in May at Romney, West Virginia. The following month Bishop Hart called a meeting of the Department at which these men reported and the program for the fall months was outlined.

During the summer months, the Chairman appointed a sub-committee consisting of Messrs. Angus, Beck and Wheeler, Mr. James Noble of Zion Church, Mr. W. Bruce Cashmore of St. John's, Norristown, Mr. William B. McIlwaine of Trinity Memorial, Mr. Reginald Martyn of Holy Apostles and The Mediator and Mr. Clarence E. Hall of St. Asaph's, Bala. This Committee was charged with the responsibility for the Training Conference held at Schwenksville the last week-end in September at which Messrs. Angus, Beck and Hall conducted training courses for speakers who filled assignments later in the fall.

Plans were also laid for six Regional Conferences as requested by Bishop Hart and the clergy of the Diocese were asked to appoint two members of their Parish or Mission to cooperate in securing representative groups to attend the most convenient Conference. In October Conferences were held at Nativity, Rockledge; Holy Trinity, West Chester; Trinity, Swarthmore; Church of the Redeemer, Bryn Mawr; St. Martin's-in-the-Fields, Chestnut Hill and Trinity Memorial, Philadelphia.

Bishop Remington presided at the first four Conferences while Bishop Hart conducted the last two. Schwenksville-trained laymen spoke on various phases of the Church's work in Parish, Diocese and National Church in a five hour program broken only by the serving of supper. These Conferences were attended by from 40 to 120 Laity and clergy; the response was such as to give real encouragement for the future.

In November Schwenksville men filled some twenty-five speaking assignments to carry the Church's message into individual parishes at the time of the Every-Member Canvass. Toward the middle of the month Bishop Hart called a supper meeting of the Department and outlined his program for 1953. This will include the appointment of a "key man" for each Parish who will serve in a liaison capacity between the Parish, the Diocese and the National Church. The Bishop also indicated his satisfaction with the Department's 1952 program and suggested a much larger number of conferences for the Fall of '53 in an effort to reach more people in the Parishes and Missions.

In November the Chairman and Co-Chairman went to Washington to attend a Provincial Conference at which Mr. Robert D. Jordan, Director of the National Council's Department of Promotion outlined plans for the future. These include much greater activity in Laymen's work which will give your Field Department increasing responsibilities.

At the year's end a subcommittee of members of the Department was attempting to secure from each rector his nominee for "key man." These men will be called together for an initial meeting early in 1953.

DEPARTMENT OF MISSIONS AND CHURCH EXTENSION

REPORT OF THE DEPARTMENT OF MISSIONS

One of the more significant aspects of life in our diocese during the past year has been the movements of population in large numbers and very suddenly. This movement is not limited to the Lower Bucks County area, Fairless Hills and Levittown, but also in that large area as far down as Croydon and over in the Southampton area. In Upper Montgomery County there is a significant group developing around King of Prussia.

The diocese, in an effort to keep abreast of these movements, has united with other denominations in a cost-sharing enterprise—bringing Mr. John Halko to head the Department of Church Planning and Extension of the Philadelphia Council of Churches. In becoming a part of this new department and sharing its costs we are simply buying information which it would cost us many times more to obtain for ourselves independently. It should be clear that the diocese is not bound to follow any recommendations made by this department but we are free to use the information we are given in any way we deem suitable. Under Mr. Halko's direction two complete surveys of the people who have moved into the Levittown development have already been made and at this writing a third is under way. We know that as of the first of January, 1953, slightly over one thousand individuals who are Episcopalians are living in Levittown houses and we know their names and addresses.

It is on the basis of such surveys that we are enabled to plan with some degree of accuracy to meet the needs of our people in that area. As time goes on such information will become increasingly available for all of the areas in the five counties comprising this diocese. Experience has shown in the Diocese of Washington that under the methods used by Mr. Halko not only new sites can be chosen with accuracy and the building requirements of the area predicted but the decline of populations in established parish areas has been successfully and accurately predicted so that churches could voluntarily decide to move their location before impoverishment had occured due to lack of parishioners and the following financial decline.

On the basis of constant study of the Levittown situation as it developed, Bishop Hart was able to free the Rev. Stanley Powell of some of his responsibilities in order to enable him to move into a house, owned by the diocese, in Levittown and to give the major part of his time and strength to serving those people. He is using the Chapel at Edgely for the time being. The diocese has, as you will see in the body of this report, accepted a plot of land comprising approximately two and a half acres in an excellent location as a free gift from the Levitt Corporation. Architects have been employed to plan buildings to be placed on that site and their plans are now under consideration.

It seems wise and desirable to maintain all of our church sites in the Lower Bucks County area for the time being until the fluid situation in that area has become more crystalized. The Convocation of Germantown has a new Committee on Church Planning and Extension which is headed by the Rev. Wm. Dietrich of Calvary Church, Germantown, which is in almost constant touch with the work in the Levittown-Fairless Hills area. As this movement is of such size, what occurs is of national interest and so we are receiving requests for information about what we are doing there from all over the country. In a sense the eyes of the nation are upon us.

It would seem desirable to the Chairman of the Department of Missions that individuals in each of the parishes of the diocese visit some of our growing areas and inform themselves of the need for spiritual nourishment of the children and adults within our midst. If we could all talk to and listen to the people who do not have church facilities available we would not only understand more of our needs but we could easily become more deeply grateful for the blessings under which we have lived. Our missionary need is an opportunity for every individual in our diocese to share in taking the light that dispels darkness into every area of our responsibility.

Some of the more important details of the past years administration follow:

The Mission of the Transfiguration at 7th and Bigler Streets, Philadelphia, was sold for $15,000.00. The diocese took a $10,000.00 mortgage on the property. The cash balances and the interest from the mortgage is to be placed in a separate account known as the Transfiguration Mission Fund.

A house was purchased for use as a Rectory for St. Ambrose Mission.

A grant was made to Epiphany Church, Royersford, toward the installation of a new heater in the rectory.

The Rev. Richard O. Partington was appointed to be the Vicar in charge of St. Jude and the Nativity, Plymouth Meeting, as of March first.

J. GILLESPIE ARMSTRONG, Chairman

THE CONVOCATION OF CHESTER

During the year 1952 another mission in the convocation became a parish. The Church of the Advent, Kennett Square which had been coming closer to self-support for several years achieved their goal, and called the Rev. Elbert K. St. Claire to be their rector. A very happy relationship had been established during the months that Mr. St. Claire acted as locum tenens which spurred the people on so that they might be able to call him. This with the natural growth of the area should make the Church of the Advent a vigorous and expanding parish.

No new work has been started in the Convocation of Chester this last year although the Suffragan Bishop and the Dean met with a few people in Oxford who would like to have us renew our work down there on the Maryland border. So far no evidence has been shown which would warrant the Diocese in starting work there, especially in view of the greater calls from other fast growing areas.

Saint Andrew's, West Vincent continues to show a healthy growth. With only the services of a lay reader and no place for a church school or for meetings, it is extraordinary to see the enthusiasm of the people in this mission. They have bought additional ground opposite the church for parking, and the Diocese has loaned them a sum of money to buy a house for their vicar who will start this Summer. They are hoping to repay the Diocese as soon as possible since their next most pressing need is a parish house, or at least a basement under the church where the church school may meet. Mr. Kenneth Werner who has been their lay reader for two years will become their vicar upon graduation in June. Here again a temporary relationship has been so happy that the congregation has been spurred on greater efforts to make it permanent.

Saint Peter's, Broomall is facing the prospect of an enlarged field of work in the near future when six hundred houses are built in their immediate neighborhood. The Woman's Auxiliary of the Convocation will complete their pledge of four thousand dollars towards an extension of the church in May, but neither the mission or the diocese is in a position at the moment to contribute the other funds necessary for this extension. It is to be hoped, however, that money may be found, so that this work may not be hampered for long.

Saint James, Green Ridge has moved into their new church and the congregation has shown a corresponding increase. The church school there is enjoying its new facilities, and continues a healthy growth.

Saint John's the Evangelist, Essington and Saint Luke's, Eddystone have been put under the charge of the Rev. Harry R. Johnson, Jr. These two missions are so close that one man can easily take care of both. However, each of them is working hard to be strong enough to warrant a full time priest. Saint John's is building up a rectory fund to have a house available when that time comes.

The need of Saint Cyril's, Coatesville for a new church still exists, and when funds are available, this should not be forgotten.

The Rev. George S. McKinley, now Rector of St. John's Church, Compass and Vicar of Ascension Church, Parkesburg, is retiring during the Summer after nearly thirty years of consecrated service in the Diocese. His reports at the meetings of Convocation will be very much missed for he managed to extract humor from any situation, no matter how tense it might be.

The Rev. Albert C. Wilcox is building a strong congregation at Saint Mark's, Honeybrook which should become a parish before long. With the rapid growth of the rural areas in the Convocation of Chester these country missions should be watched for they may be the strong parishes of the future.

The Woman's Auxiliary of the Convocation continues to be the pride of this Convocation and the envy of others. The size and interest of their meetings make them well worth attending, and the money they raise is of the greatest assistance in our work. Besides a project to assist some mission in expansion each two years, they have an emergency fund which takes care of many repairs on properties, thereby relieving the Diocese of some financial concern.

WOMAN'S AUXILIARY OF THE CONVOCATION OF CHESTER

Our year has been a happy and we hope, a profitable one in the progress of the Church's work in the area of the Chester Convocation. We women have raised $2,500.00, two thousand of which is earmarked for St. Peter's in Broomall. The balance of $500.00 is being held in a fund for emergency needs in the Convocation.

I hope we have all been praying conscientiously for God's direction and blessing upon the individual Parishes, Rectors and congregations in our Convocation.

In the past year, we have had two well-attended, enthusiastic meetings. In May we met at St. Mary's Church in Ardmore. The vital question of world peace and a practical means to achieve it was spoken of by Mrs. James Sands, of the Department of Christian Social Relations. Mrs. Francis Packard inspired all by reminding us of the imperative need for Spiritual defence—to keep pace spiritually with the fast moving world in which we live. The Rev. Roy Sommers, a young Priest from Tanacross, Alaska, was the speaker of the day. He gave a vivid picture of the Church's splendid work among the Indians.

In October, at our fall meeting, Holy Trinity, West Chester, opened her doors to bid us welcome. Their renovations to the Parish House were barely finished when we entered 303 strong. It was a fine meeting and we were most grateful. Too much cannot be said to express the appreciation of the women of the Convocation for the delightful and hospitable plans made for our meetings, by the Parishes who invite us.

In October the Rev. George Wieland of the National Council, was the speaker. He described the activities and work in some of the Institutions comprising the American Church Institute for Negroes. It was very illuminating and interesting and made us realize the necessity to support this work with all our hearts.

To work, pray and give is our mission. Let us do it with joy. God bless you all.

MARTHA L. GIBBONS
Treasurer

CONVOCATION OF GERMANTOWN

On June 25, 1952 occurred the death of the Very Rev. Edmund B. Wood. For two years he had served the Diocese as Dean of Germantown Convocation with insight, energy, wit and devotion. He will long be remembered for his qualities of friendliness and affection. From the day of his ordination until the day of his death he gave of himself unstintingly in the service of his Master. We regret that he did not live long enough to enjoy the leisure of retirement, but in such matters, as in all matters, we believe the Lord knoweth best.

Aware of his limitations in respect both to time and ability to carry on the work, your newly elected Dean requested the Executive Committee and later the Convocation to authorize the formation of four committees as follows: Committee on Program and Arrangements for Convocation (Mr. Loring Dam, Chairman); Committee on Church Extension, New Sites and Property (The Rev. William J. Dietrich, Jr., Chairman); Committee on Publicity (The Rev. A. J. Holloway, Chairman); and Committee on Appropriations (The Rev. H. E. Kaufmann, Chairman). These committees have greatly helped in planning, publicizing and carrying out the work of our Convocation. Were it not for the work of these committees and the help of other members of this Convocation both lay and clerical, much that has been accomplished in the past year would not have been possible.

The following changes have taken place during the past year. We have lost by death The Rev. Edmund B. Wood, Rector of St. Timothy's Church, Roxborough.

We have lost by removal to other parts of the Diocese or to other Dioceses the following: The Rev. Howard W. Gernand retired, the Rev. Stanley Powell resigned as Rector of Christ Church, Eddington.

We are happy to welcome the following clergy who have taken residence within the Convocation during the past year. The Rev. Walter W. Ware was elected Rector Holy Innocents, Tacony, the Rev. Conrad H. Goodwin, Curate of St. Paul's, Chestnut Hill, The Rev. Frederick Leser, Curate of St. Martin's, Chestnut Hill, and the Rev. Arthur W. Matthews elected Rector of Redeemer, Andalusia, the Rev. John R. Wilkins, Curate of St. Luke's, Germantown, and The Rev. John R. Crockett elected Rector of St. Timothy's, Roxborough.

The Church of the Incarnation in Morrisville under the leadership of the Rev. William T. Warren, has become a self-sustaining Parish. The Rev. Stanley Powell moved on from the rectory at Eddington to a new residence, 34 Fortune Lane, acquired by the Diocese in Levittown. Since that time services at Christ Church, Eddington have been conducted by the Rev. George B. Krantz, Jr. and by lay-readers supplied by the Diocese. Arrangements have been made whereby a full time ordained minister will be placed in residence there early in June.

A large and strategically-placed property has been deeded to the Diocese by the Levittown Corporation, and plans for a new combined Church and Parish House have been drawn and approved and will soon be in the process of building. Residents of both Edgely and Levittown are already active in raising money and planning for the occupation of the new building. Members of the Diocese are urged to visit Levittown and see for themselves what is going on there.

St. Philip's, New Hope has acquired a new electronic organ, the gift of Mrs. John Carson in memory of her husband. Extensive repairs on building and new equipment at an approximate cost of $5,300 have been completed at Trinity Church, Solebury.

The Rectory at All Saints, Fallsington has been renovated so that it could be used for Church School classes and Parish gatherings. A new roof, guaranteed against leaks for twelve years, has been placed on the Church.

At Grace Church, Hulmeville, new siding will be put on the rectory and the chimney on the Church will be rebuilt. The cost of this work will be shared approximately half and half by Grace Church and by the Diocese.

The new Church building at St. Andrew's, Somerton is rapidly approaching completion. The location of the Church property is near the center of a large housing development and already membership is increasing rapidly.

The Vicar, the Rev. Lee Richards, was married on June 28, 1952 to Harriet S. White. Our congratulations and best wishes.

We wish to extend our thanks to Mrs. Henry Cocker and her officers and the ladies of the Woman's Auxiliary of the Convocation of Germantown for their continued help and support, a report of which follows. Also to the Memorial Church of the Good Shepherd, Germantown, for the use of their grounds for the Annual Garden Day.

In conclusion let it be said that opportunty for the expansion of the Church's work in the Convocation of Germantown have never been better. We need but two things—more money for the purchase of property in strategic places and the erection of buildings, and more clergy available for missionary work within the Diocese. One is useless without the other. Supplied with both there is virtually no limit to what we could do in the way of ministering to the spiritual needs of a large and rapidly growing population.

Dean

CONVOCATION OF NORRISTOWN

The six Mission of the Convocation of Norristown are in excellent condition. Vigorous life and high hopes characterize all of them.

Trinity Mission, Gulph Mills, under the leadership of Mr. Max Smith, a student of the Philadelphia Divinity School, has continued to show the renewed life and activity that has characterized it through the last two years. A group of men has been organized to work with the already hard-working Woman's Auxiliary and steps are now being taken to organize a Mission Committee which will make plans and assume responsibility for the Mission program. The Mission needs a resident man who can be on the spot in order to take advantage of the new growth in the community. The people of the Mission are well aware of this fact and are working hard to provide necessary funds in the hope that within the next two or three years this important step will be possible.

Whereas St. Jude and the Nativity, Plymouth Meeting, is not strictly speaking a Mission, it has the status of a mission the Bishop is rector and appoints the vicar, its establishment in our midst has been watched with great interest and it has already outgrown its new church. Plans are afoot for building an addition. It will probably be off the Missionary Budget within a year or two. The Woman's Auxiliary to the Convocation did yoeman's work in equipping the kitchen in the new Rectory and deserves the applause of everyone.

St. Philip's, Oreland, continues to suffer for want of space. A Building Committee has been organized and plans are being drawn up for a church building which the people of the Mission dearly want but which they will need help in order to attain. Further growth of the Mission will be jeopardized if some solution to their building program is not found forthwith. The Diocese has set aside a sum of $12,000 towards the cost of building a new church edifice.

The Rev. David Leech succeeded Mr. Rodgers at Emmanuel, Quakertown, early last spring and has picked up his excellent work. The interior of the Church has been completely done over and its fine enthusiastic, hard-working congregation continues to flourish.

The Rev. Marshall Frey left Epiphany, Royersford, early last summer and was succeeded in the fall by a Lay Reader, Mr. Harold C. Kellogg from Grace Church, Mount Airy. He has been doing a very creditable piece of work with the full support and cooperation of the Mission and many new families have been added to its roll. The buildings continue to be a severe problem but have held up this far.

The Rev. Harold A. Hopkins continues his good work at St. Anne's, Willow Grove, and a fine, steady growth is apparent.

Special commendation is due the Brotherhood of St. Andrews of St. Thomas' Church, Whitemarsh, for help in supplying the Missions during the summer months and to the Woman's Auxiliary for their fine support.

WOMAN'S AUXILIARY OF THE CONVOCATION OF NORRISTOWN

The Woman's Auxiliary of the Convocation of Norristown held two meetings during the past year, May and October.

The Spring Meeting took place at Emmanuel Church, Quakertown. A check for $1,000 was given to Dean Groton to pay for filling in the ground around the new vicarage at Quakertown, putting on top soil and seeding it. Mr. Edward McKeever, the Treasurer of Emmanuel Church, thanked the women for their help and interest, and invited them to go through the vicarage. Mr. Max Smith reported on his work at Trinity Mission, Gulf Mills.

It was voted at this meeting to pledge $1,142 to pay for the stove, washing machine, venetian blinds, wall paper, storm sash and screens for the rectory at the new church St. Jude and the Nativity at Plymouth Meeting.

During Lent an Educational Day was held at St. Thomas Church, Whitemarsh, and at St. James Church, Perkiomen.

The Fall meeting was held at St. Jude and the Nativity. The women were given a most cordial welcome by the Rector The Rev. Richard O. Partingdon and Dr. Daniel W. Kirkpatrick a member of the Vestry and were taken on a tour through the church and rectory. A report was given by the Rev. Wm. David Leech, the newly appointed Vicar at Emmanuel Church, Quakertown.

CONVOCATION OF NORTH PHILADELPHIA

The May meeting of the Convocation for the year 1952 was held at St. Matthew's Church, and the October meeting at St. George's, Richmond, with Bishop Remington paying us a visit from his California home.

We honor the blessed memory of Dr. Charles B. Dubell, the rector of St. Simeon's Church, who had endeared himself to everyone.

St. Ambrose Church fared well in material gains during the year. A new rectory was purchased by the Diocese, and the Board of Missions spent over $4,000 putting on a new roof with the necessary spouting, rain conductors and so on.

The Rev. George Krantz left St. Bartholomew's on Lehigh Avenue to become a "Diocesan Missioner at large," and we are indebted to one of the lay readers of the Diocese, who is carrying on the work there for the present.

Emmanuel Church is still well cared for by the rector of the neighboring Church of the Good Shepherd, the Rev. David Trauger.

The Rev. Gustav Meckling is now giving full time leadership to St. Barnabas', 3rd & Dauphin Streets.

The situation at Holy Redeemer (Polish) remains the same. Their old church building having been torn down, the congregation continues to hold services and meetings in St. Mary's Italian Mission. They are patiently awaiting some action by the proper authorities. The Vicar and members of St. Mary's deserve much credit for this good neighbor kindness.

The old church of St. John Chrysostom, 28th & Susquehanna, has at last been condemned by the city. The congregation had already dwindled until only two vestrymen were left and practically no members. The property is now in process of being sold.

St. George's, Richmond, borrowed some money from the Diocese in order to renew their heating arrangements, replace a floor and make other necessary repairs. It is to the great credit of the Vicar and people of this Mission that they are now paying back quickly the money they borrowed.

We thank Dr. Percy Stockman for continuing as the backbone of the work done at St. Paul's, North Penn.

As in previous years, we have given scholarships from this Convocation to our Young People's Summer Conference, so again in 1952, we provided two scholarships for the conference at Haverford.

Again we wish to thank the officers and members of the Women's Auxiliary to the Convocation for their loyalty and continued splendid help in carrying on the work of our Convocation.

Box lunch with tea and coffee served, followed by meditations in afternoon. In spite of a very rainy and windy day, a number of ladies ventured out.

May 13th, our meeting was held at St. Matthew's Church, 18th and Girard Ave. in the afternoon, joining the men for dinner. Our speaker was Dr. Albert A. Martucci, who showed pictures and talked to us about the Rehabilitation Center of the Episcopal Hospital.

On April 23rd a card party was held at St. Ambrose Mission, Howard and Ontario Sts.

October meeting was held at St. George's, E. Indiana Ave. and Livingston St. Rev. Robert S. Harris told us of a Fund started to purchase a heater for the Parish House of Church of Annunciation, and Mr. G. Crofton Thompson spoke about a leaking roof on St. Barnabas Church. It was voted, at this meeting, to give $100.00 to each cause.

The last meeting of the year was held at Church of the Advocate, 18th and Diamond Streets. Communion at 10.30 o'clock then business meeting, after which the ladies of Church of the Advocate served luncheon. In the afternoon, Bishop William P. THE CONVOCATION OF SOUTH PHILADELPHIA

There is a good spirit prevailing in the Convocation of South Philadelphia.

While we cannot report the establishing of new work in our area, we can say that the organized work is being carried on by faithful clergy and people.

The experiment at St. John the Evangelist, under the supervision of the rector, the Rev. Norman C. Farnoff, is working very well. Divinity students are being given an opportunity to do practical work in a city parish.

St. Elisabeth's Mission is doing good work under the leadership of the Rev. Theron Vallee, who took charge of the mission on July 1st, when the Rev. Francis Roseboro resigned after many years of faithful service to this congregation.

St. Philip's Mission is going steadily forward under the leadership of the Vicar, the Rev. Dr. J. Da Costa Harewood. The people of St. Philip's are working hard to continue self-supporting and the mission is to be congratulated on its achievements.

A survey, under the area leadership of Mr. D. C. Montgomery, is being conducted in the seven churches west of Broad Street and south of Pine Street. We expect this survey to be completed soon and that a full report will be given to the Bishop.

Considerable activity is taking place in business and industrial circles in South Philadelphia. Great improvements are in the making. What bearing these changes will have on the life of the churches in this area remains to be seen. We hope that it will be beneficial and that the churches will grow in membership with the increasing population.

The May meeting of Convocation was held at St. John the Evangelist Church and the Fall meeting at the Memorial Church of St. Paul.

We are grateful to the Woman's Aid of our Convocation for it loyalty and deep interest in the work of the Convocation and of the Church-at-large.

WOMAN'S AID TO THE CONVOCATION OF SOUTH PHILADELPHIA

There were three meetings of the Woman's Aid. The January meeting at St. Luke and the Epiphany, a resolution of tribute was read and spread on the minutes on the death of Mrs. John Samuel, one of our outstanding members and a great loss to the whole Church. Mrs. Young spoke about the very bad fire at St. Thomas' in West Philadelphia, and it was voted to make a donation of $50.00 towards the building fund. Bishop Roberts, formerly of China, then gave us a most interesting word picture of their life in China.

The May meeting was at St. John's, 3rd and Reed Streets and a prayer was offered as Mrs. S. Naudain Dyer had died since our last meeting. It was voted to give $25.00 to the Episcopal Hospital Garden Fete. Vacational Bible Schools were to be held at Crucifixion, St. Elisabeth's and it was voted to give each $20.00. The speaker was the delightful Madam Y. Y. Tsu, wife of Bishop Tsu former Bishop of China, her talk was very tragic but most interesting and challenging.

The October meeting was held at St. Paul's, 15th and Porter Streets. A report was read of 12 Churches who donated to the Needlework Guild, 386 garments and $187.76. Christmas Treats were given to Crucifixion, St. Mary's and St. Phillip's to the sum of $20.00 each. We cooperated in the work for the Educational Day of The Blind. Dean Parker told us of the Canvass that was being carried on in a part of the Convocation and asked for $100.00 from the Woman's Aid to help him in this project, this was granted. Miss Beryl M. Newman gave a very interesting and outspoken talk on "Is The Church School Enough?" We were delighted to have Bishop Armstrong appear at the meeting and give us a few words.

This being my last report I would like to thank each and everyone who has helped me through the past years for all that they have done. I have made many warm friends and I have done something to forward the Church in the Convocation. I know I have grown myself in a new insight of the needs, and pass on my job with a great deal of hope and prayer to my successor whoever she may be and look back with many thanks for the many opportunities I have had during my terms of office.

Respectively submitted,

THE CONVOCATION OF WEST PHILADELPHIA

During the year 1952 the Missions in the Convocation of West Philadelphia again made splendid progress under their respective Vicars.

The Rev. Raymond S. Mitchell, Vicar, St. Cyprian's Mission reports that the interest of the faithful members is remarkable and that all financial obligations have been met; leaving a workable amount for the beginning of the new year. The following additions and repairs were made to the physical plant; a refrigerator, gas stove and sink for the kitchen, four new lights were placed in the basement, in the Church eight new indirect lamps were donated by members and friends of the Mission, the Woman's Auxiliary purchased lumber out of which the men of the Church made sturdy and uniform kneelers for the Nave, two foam rubber Altar Kneelers were also given by the Woman's Auxiliary, office lights were given in memory of one of St. Cyprian's old members by the family, and the basement was painted by the men in their spare time.

One of the greatest needs of all that was received by the Mission was a Vicarage. The Vicar is now resident in the Community and as a result of this move there is a closer contact between him and his people.

The interest of the Mission is to strengthen and develop the spiritual growth of the Church. On Sundays a special prayer service is held, after the main service, where the faithful gather together to make their desires known to God in this respect. These few meditative moments have proven the corporate strength of the entire congregation, and the unfailing interest of the people in its future development.

At St. Monica's Mission—The Rev. Matthew W. Davis, Vicar—the year 1952 was a banner one. It was the 40th Anniversary of the founding of the work, and this anniversary was observed with a four-day celebration which was concluded on Sunday, October 19th, by the visit of the Bishop for Confirmation, 21 persons being confirmed.

The material value of the Mission was improved by constructing a stone wall on the front and west side of the property, and by painting the front of the building. The Parish Hall was studded and lined with knotted pine from floor to ceiling and shellacked, and the floor painted. This was made possible by a loan from the Diocese; repayment to be made the first week of June, 1953.

The old Dossal Curtain over the main altar was replaced by members and friends and a matching Full Frontal was given in memory of one of the deceased members of the Chapel Committee by his family.

The Lady Chapel which is used every Sunday at 8:00 A.M. was completely repainted and redecorated, including a new Dossal

Curtain, also a memorial, and new draw draperies for the windows were made by the Vicar's wife.

The Convocation is to be thanked for the Episcopal Church sign. A new communicant gave an interchangeable sign in memory of his wife.

The members of the Mission have evidenced a splendid spirit of loyalty and cooperation and are to be congratulated on being able to contribute their full share of $600.00 to Missions.

St. Titus Mission has also had a splendid year. The Diocese purchased a Vicarage at 8615 Eastwick Avenue and refinished it for the new Vicar, the Rev. Arthur F. Gibson and Mrs. Gibson. This was a constructive move, for living in the community and having a closer contact with the Communicants is a very essential factor in the Vicar's work.

The Church building is in good condition and a new sign has been erected and plans are under way to redecorate the Club Room this year. At present there is a shortage of chairs and a piano is badly needed for the Church School.

There are three officers and teachers and 15 scholars in the Church School, with Mr. H. L. Milford, Superintendent. Mr. Milford was a former Superintendent at Old Christ Church, 2nd Street above Market, Phila.

The choir is a splendid volunteer choir, under the direction of Mr. H. L. Milford, Organist and Choir Master.

The Financial status of the Mission is good, all bills having been paid and a good balance on hand.

The spiritual growth has been good and the congregation has shown a splendid loyalty.

To these Vicars I am indeed grateful, and I also want to express my appreciation for their fine guidance and their cooperation. I am grateful to the Woman's Auxiliary of the Convocation, under the splendid leadership of Mrs. William Sargeant, for its assistance to me in carrying on the work of the Convocation.

We commend the good people of St. Thomas' Church for the amazing progress made in the partial restoration of their buildings following the destructive fire of December 20, 1951. In the face of almost insurmountable financial difficulties, but with characteristic faith in God's help, the members of this parish have completed the rebuilding of the Church which was re-opened for services on Sunday, January 25th, 1953. However there is still much work to be done. It is our earnest hope and prayer that the new Parish House may be constructed within the coming year. May God bless them in their fine spirit of Christian fellowship.

Dean

We suffered a great loss in February, in the death of Mrs. George Lamb, our former Chairman of Convocation. Her name has been added to The Book of Remembrance at the Church House.

A Quiet Day was held at St. James Church, Kingsessing, on February 21st. It was conducted by Rev. Charles Ehly of Drexel Hill.

A Card Party (and Sale) was held at the Philadelphia Gas Company in West Philadelphia on February 24th at 8 P.M. which netted $104.10.

Coin Cards distributed over the summer turned in $106.10. The Book Review netted $80.70.

Our women cooperated in The Episcopal Day for The Education of The Blind and for The May Fete of The Episcopal Hospital.

DEPARTMENT OF CHRISTIAN EDUCATION

ANNUAL REPORT FOR 1952

In the past year the diocesan department has continued to work closely with the National Department of Christian Education and has endeavored to keep our parishes informed as to any new developments in the field of Christian Education. At the May department meeting which was held at St. Mary's Church, Hamilton Village, all our committee members were invited to see two new films and to hear the Rev. Grant A. Morrill address them on the Christian Living Conferences which were to be held in the diocese. At that time the chairman of the department was asked to act as chairman of a Central Committee to promote the Conferences which were to be held in January and February, 1953. The department took an active part in this promotion together with many leading laymen, laywomen, and clergy, and we offered our facilities and staff for preparing and distributing the many mailings in connection with this promotion. In September Mrs. Dorothy Goudie, who has been secretary resigned and we were fortunate in securing the services of Mrs. David E. Hilsee who accepted the position as secretary and assistant to the Executive Secretary. She received her training at the Philadelphia Divinity School and has proved a very valuable addition to the department staff, and has freed Miss Newman for more time with the important youth work.

Miss Beryl Newman, the Executive Secretary, in the past year again has served in an advisory capacity in many of our parishes and missions as she visited with Church Schools, teachers' meetings, youth groups, and Woman's Auxiliary groups. The Curriculum Planning days continued to be held, and more and more clergy, teachers, and Church School leaders took advantage of them.

Among other activities the Executive Secretary served on the Commission on Christian Education of the Third Province, on the committee to plan for the national meeting of Directors of Religious Education, with the Philadelphia Council of Churches, and she participated in various ways in the Woman's Auxiliary and the National Department of Christian Education.

During the past year there have been some changes in committee personnel. Miss Maude Cutler resigned as chairman of the Reference Committee because of moving to New York. Mrs. George C. Bland became the new chairman. Miss Ann Adams resigned from the Church School Committee because of her marriage to a clergyman of another diocese. Miss Elizabeth Jenks resigned as chairman of the Church School Committee and Miss Helen McHenry became the new chairman. The Rev. Frederic Murray resigned as chairman of the Youth Commission and the Rev. Philemon F. Sturges became the new chairman.

The following reports of the various committees of the department will give a detailed account of their work in 1952.

The Audio-Visual Committee

The Rev. Robert Q. Kennaugh, Chairman

The Audio-Visual Cooperative which was started the latter part of 1951 now has thirty members. The formation of this cooperative has greatly stimulated and increased the use of this medium of education.

An Audio-Visual Catalogue listing the films, filmstrips, and slides available for rental was compiled and sent to clergy and other leaders. The department now owns all of the National Council missionary films and has a constantly increasing library of slides and filmstrips.

A splicer and five rewind reels were purchased to facilitate the repair of torn films.

The Church School Committee

Miss Helen McHenry, Chairman

The 82nd Annual Church School Institute was held on Monday, October 6th. Mrs. Dora P. Chaplin, Associate Editor of the Division of Curriculum Development, National Council, was the speaker. Taking as her topic the theme of the Institute, "Who's Johnny?", Mrs. Chaplin spoke with insight and understanding of the needs of Johnny at various age levels and helped us to see that Johnny is a child of God who needs to be brought into a loving relationship with other members of the Christian family.

The Institute opened in late afternoon at the Christian Association with an exhibit of books and visual aids. Miss Charlotte Tompkins, Executive Secretary, Division of Audio-Visual Education, National Council, conducted a demonstration of "how and when" to use this type of material; and conferences for teachers of the various age groups also were held. Supper was served at St.

Mary's Church, Hamilton Village, following which the group re-assembled at the Christian Association where they were joined by other teachers, superintendents, and clergy to hear Mrs. Chaplin. The Institute closed with a Dedication Service led by Bishop Hart.

The Church School Committee in cooperation with the Special Offerings Committee planned the Lenten Study Guide for Church School leaders. The mission theme for 1953 is "Liberia."

Committee on Special Offerings

The Rev. Herbert W. Jones, Chairman

The Lenten offering for 1952 totaling $77,579.45 from 180 parishes and missions was presented on the Sunday after Ascension Day, May 25th, at the Episcopal Academy. Due to rain the service was held in the gymnasium. Although it was crowded to capacity and there was an overflow into the hall, the 1200 choir members and everyone else who could get into the room agreed that this was a wonderfully inspiring service. Bishop Hart was the speaker and the young people were in rapt attention. Because this year was the seventy-fifth anniversary of the Lenten offering, St. John's Church, Cynwyd, where the Lenten offering originated gave a pageant of the first offering.

The Advent offering for this year was assigned to help refurnish and provide equipment for the Church School of St. Thomas' Church, West Philadelphia, which suffered heavy damage by fire just about one year ago. The offering amounted to $1,900.04 and thirty-eight Church Schools participated.

The Lenten Guide for Church School leaders was again this year prepared by the Church School Committee and this committee.

The Birthday Thank offering for 1951-52 amounted to $143.89 and was for the building of a parish house at Tadian, the Philippine Islands. Eight parishes and missions participated in this offering.

The Church Schools, under the Diocesan Christmas Committee, sent over four thousand gifts and $75 to eighteen missions and institutions. Fifty-three schools participated. Thirty-two Church Schools sent $487.41 to the Missionary District of Haiti for Christmas gifts.

The Vacation Church School Committee

Miss Eleanor A. Deane, Chairman

The great stress on Christian Education in the Church today has resulted in a greater recognition of the value of the Vacation Church School. While we continued to support the Vacation Church School Institute held under the auspices of the Philadelphia Council of Churches, we also planned a one-night Institute for Episcopal leaders with the Rev. Victor Hoag, Director of Christian Education, Diocese of New Jersey, as speaker. The seventy-four persons from twenty-four parishes who attended were very vocal as to its worthwhileness, and the interesting thing was that only a few of the twenty-four parishes represented had ever held vacation schools. We hope this movement continues to grow in our diocese. The committee and Room 30 continued to help financially and/or with counsel regarding curriculum and organization.

The Church School-By-Mail Committee

The Rev. John C. Knewstub, Chairman

There were 267 children on the Church School-by-Mail roll during 1952. This included 59 new members located in the outlying districts of Chester and Delaware counties. 39 children became affiliated with the nearest Sunday School, others moved or outgrew the work, leaving a total of 191 on roll at the end of the year. Of these, 154 are in the Chester Convocation, 2 in the Norristown Convocation, 15 in the Germantown Convocation, and 18 in the West Philadelphia Convocation in the Home for Incurables. Two children were enrolled with us by the Diocese of Southwestern Virginia which has no Church School-by-Mail.

Seventy-four percent of the families do the required written work, 38% regularly and 36% irregularly. This material is corrected and returned to the children with letters. The remaining families responded with letters or when visited showed that they were using the lessons. One child was presented for confirmation.

A total of 104 visits was made by the worker, 57 to families on the roll and 47 canvassing for new families. Ten drivers gave their services to take the worker visiting; eight of these were clergymen, two were laywomen.

Other statistics are:

1. One hundred and ninety-four scholarships were received from parishes and missions for the support of this work.
2. The Church School-by-Mail children presented a Lenten offering of $28.07.
3. One hundred eighty Christmas gifts were sent to the children.
4. St. John's, Concord, provided a worker to mail and correct the lessons in their outlying district.

The Weekday Religious Education Committee

This committee did not function during 1952, but the Executive Secretary of the department, Miss Newman, met several times with the Executive Committee of the Philadelphia Council of Churches Christian Education Department to consider this matter. The Supreme Court's favorable decision in the Brooklyn weekday religious education case on April 28th, 1952, made it imperative that we rethink and renew our interest in this area of work. A new chairman and a committee will be appointed to carry on this work.

The Commission on Youth

The Rev. Frederic R. Murray, Chairman to October, 1952

The Rev. Philemon F. Sturges, Chairman from October, 1952

The Youth Commission has met monthly during the past year except for the summer months and December. The Rev. Frederic R. Murray of St. Paul's Church, Elkins Park was chairman of the commission until October when his new duties as Dean of the Convocation of Norristown made his resignation necessary, so that this report is largely on his excellent leadership. The activities of the commission this year have consisted largely in promoting and encouraging the work of the Youth Council and, as a result of the department's action in January, the conducting of the Summer Conference for Youth. The department at the request of the Summer Conference Committee put this committee under the Youth Commission.

The Youth Council met monthly. In January the council sponsored the Mid-winter District Meetings, the ten areas combining into four meetings for the election of new members to the council and as a follow-up of the Bryan Green Mission. On May 3rd the annual Youth Convention met at Episcopal Academy. The Rev. Kenneth Anthony, formerly of Southwestern Virginia and now rector of Holy Trinity Church, West Chester, addressed a record attendance on the theme for the United Movement of the Church's Youth for 1952-53, "Daily Increase." Following the discussion groups on the address, the convention reconvened for a business session and elected Ronald Partridge of Our Saviour, Jenkintown, president; Robert Worthey of All Saints, Rhawnhurst, vice-president; and Sally Dallas of The Redeemer, Springfield, secretary, and these officers as delegates to the Triennial Youth Convention. Unfortunately neither the president nor the secretary could attend when the time came, and the diocese was represented by Bob Worthey and Bill Brown of Zion Church, Philadelphia, at the sessions held at Tufts College outside of Boston during General Convention.

The council met for an all-day planning session at the YPF house in Whitemarsh on September 6th and laid plans for the observance of Bishop Hart's tenth anniversary as Bishop by a corporate communion of the youth of the diocese at the Church of the Holy Apostles and The Mediator, West Philadelphia, which was attended by over six-hundred young people who presented to him a specially bound and suitably inscribed Prayer Book and Hymnal. They also planned for the fall district meetings which were held in November and which were addressed by a panel of the delegates and visitors to the Triennial Youth Convention; and for the Advent Service which was held in Christ Church, Philadelphia, on November 30th with an attendance of over five-hundred and addressed by the Rev. Harold Frankham, Bryan Green's assistant, and for a summer conference reunion and Open House in the Neighborhood House to follow the service.

The summer conference was held at Haverford College on June 22-28 with an attendance of one hundred thirty-four registered students and faculty headed by the Rev. Donald R. Mayberry of Wilmington, Delaware, whose theme was "Prayer." The theme was developed in the discussion groups and the third period interest groups and beautifully pointed up to a conclusion in the talks of the chaplain, the Rev. Frederic R. Murray at the sunset services. In spite of the handicaps of the weather which had us searching for more blankets the first two nights and then catapulted us into one of the worse heat waves of the summer, and a larger attendance than ever before, the conference was voted one of the best ever.

The Youth Guide continued to be issued bi-monthly. Its primary purpose is to publicize and promote the Four Majors of the UMCY and diocesan youth events.

The Guild of the Christ Child Committee

Mrs. Joseph Tatnall, Chairman

For two years the Department of Christian Education has been recommending the Guild of the Christ Child material published by the Diocese of Maryland, as educational material for parents of children from baptism to Church nursery school.

The department has distributed approximately two thousand packets of the material which means that nearly two thousand families are receiving the material through about sixty-four parishes.

The Adult Committee

The Rev. J. Wesley Twelves, Chairman

This Committee has long felt that the greatest need for Christian Education was among parents and adults. That is why we inaugurated the plan of systematic visitation to parents of young children, which finally culminated in the use of the material of the Guild of the Christ Child in this diocese.

Because there was little material available in our Church for adult study, we felt that the first obligation of the national department was to prepare material for this group, and consequently we rejoiced when the Church centered its first endeavors under the new plan upon the publication of material for teaching adults. Many good books and study pamphlets have been published.

We have considered our primary responsibility at this time to be one of stimulation and promotion, so that parishes will see the need and use the splendid material being so rapidly published by the National Department of Christian Education. Charts and guides, explaining what is available, and how to use the new educational material, have been prepared by this Committee.

The School of Christian Education Committee

The Rev. Jesse F. Anderson, Chairman

This committee held two meetings to discuss what should be the relationship of the School of Christian Education to the forthcoming Christian Living Conferences to be held early in 1953. It was decided that in view of these conferences, there should be no sessions of the School of Christian Education during the 1952-53 season. It was further decided that the committee should issue an announcement to this effect and urge attendance at the area conferences.

The Reference Committee

Miss Maude Cutler, Chairman to June, 1952

Mrs. George C. Bland, Chairman from October, 1952

This committee did not function during 1952, but it now has before it three matters for consideration:

1. A study of the best time for mission study in the Church School.
2. A brochure on Children's Church School Offerings.
3. The youth movement called Young Life which has cropped up in some areas of the country and is causing great concern to our clergy in those areas.

The foregoing reports show the continued activity in the various committees of the department. I would like to close this report thanking the many volunteers, clergy and lay, who have served unselfishly on the various committees. We also wish to thank the members of the clergy of the diocese who have supported the work, and we sincerely hope that this department can continue to render an even greater service in the diocese in the years to come.

Respectfully submitted,
PETER C. VAN DER HIEL, JR., Chairman

ANNUAL REPORT OF THE DEPARTMENT OF CHRISTIAN SOCIAL RELATIONS

During the year 1952 this Department keenly missed the genial and enthusiastic oversight provided by the former Suffragan Bishop, the Rt. Rev. William P. Remington, who retired in June 1951. His willingness to give leadership and advice in the matters handled by the Department had been of great assistance to the Department in earlier years.

The work of the Department has been strengthened through the presence of the Rev. Arnold Purdie, who has the dual role as Executive Secretary of the City Mission and Executive Director of this Department. His knowledge of the work and facilities of the National Council has brought to this Diocese a closer cooperation with the National Council than existed in earlier years, as well as providing the technical knowledge which such a Department as ours should have.

The Department was reorganized into three divisions: (a) Social Education and Action, (b) Health and Welfare Services, and (c) the Urban Church. In this manner the Department has endeavored to cover the field of social relations.

The Annual Institute of the Department was held on February 20th at the Church of St. Luke and the Epiphany, 175 persons from 60 parishes and missions attending. The emphasis of the Institute was on the subject of the work of the Church in urban industrial areas. The Department continued its cooperation with the Joint Committee on Urban Work, created in 1951, and assisted in developing the plans for the church study now being conducted in the Convocation of South Philadelphia.

During the past year this Department cooperated with the Department of Christian Social Relations of the National Council in the study concerning social education and action, and concerning Church agencies; which report was presented to the 1952 General Convention.

The Department continued its work among Displaced Persons and during the year 1952 was responsible for arranging for the reception of four single persons and four family groups. In this connection credit should be given to Miss Florence Davies, office secretary of our Department, and to the Department of Christian Social Relations of the Woman's Auxiliary for the unselfish service in this phase of the work.

The Department also assisted in arousing interest in the Study of the Aging, conducted by the state of Pennsylvania.

Under the leadership of Mr. Sydney Lea, and at the request of the Board of Council of the City Mission, the Department is conducting a study to determine the adequacy of the ministry of the Episcopal Church to the immates of public and private institutions within the Diocesan area.

A committee under the leadership of the Rev. Lars R. Bache-Wiig has been conducting a study in the use of professional consultants in connection with the parish ministry. It is hoped that the findings of this study will be of use to other clergy.

This Department cooperated with the Woman's Auxiliary in the annual clothing drive to aid the destitute in Europe and Asia, cooperating with the Philadelphia Council of Churches and the Church World Service.

During the current year the officers of the Department were:

Chairman	The Rev. Thomas A. Meryweather
Vice-chairman	Mr. Sydney Lea
Secretary	Mrs. Robert Toland

The annual budget of the Department was $6,450.00, the same as in 1951.

The Chairman tendered his resignation effective December 30, 1952, and the Bishop of the Diocese requested the Vice-chairman to act as head of the Department until the reorganization in the spring of 1953.

During the decade and more that I have been associated with the Department in this Diocese I have seen it move from a point of view of staid conservatism to a position of aggressive action which was frequently too advanced for the Diocese to accept. During the past few years, the Department has followed a somewhat middle position. Nevertheless, our emphasis upon Displaced Persons, Church agencies, urban industrial ministry and social education and community action, has I hope awakened the clergy and congregations of some of the parishes and missions to the opportunities and the necessity of Christian Social Relations within their own neighborhood.

The Department has felt that the present Diocesan canon dealing with the purpose and work of this Department is entirely inadequate. We plan to present to the Executive Council for presentation to the 1953 Diocesan Convention, a proposed canon which will clearly state the purpose and scope of the Department, thus making possible a definite plan of action, approved by the Diocese.

THE REV. THOMAS A. MERYWEATHER,
Chairman

APPENDIX I

REPORT
THE COMMITTEE ON THE FUND FOR THE EPISCOPATE

The Committee is happy to report substantial advances in its program of publicity since the date of preparation of its last Report in March 1952, as a result of which more people in the diocese are coming to know of its purpose, goal, and methods. Let us here, at the outset of this Report, state these briefly: the Committee exists to enlarge a long-existing capital Fund so that the income from it may be sufficient to defray the expense of the Episcopate in this diocese for the present and for a reasonably forseeable future; its goal is one and one-half million dollars, the income from which at four per cent would be sixty thousand dollars, against present Episcopal expense of fifty thousand; its methods are entirely advertisement to attract bequests; while not refusing gifts from the living, yet engaging in no effort or pressure to induce these.

Although, as just stated, the Committee's purpose is becoming better known, two obstructions still exist to a more complete publicity. One of these is the fear entertained by some clergy that bequests to the Fund will be in substitution for gifts or bequests which their parishes or missions might otherwise have enjoyed. Another is the belief that the result of the Fund, when its goal shall have been obtained, will be fundamentally undesirable, as obviating the necessity for assessments for the support of the Episcopate which they consider desirable as reminding congregations of the existence of the Episcopate. In their opinion the Episcopate ought to be supported by an assessment and not by income from an endowment.

Regarding the effect of bequests to the Fund, it may be pointed out that (1) the wealthy make bequests to more than one charity; in their case inclusion of the Fund does not mean exclusion of the parish or mission, or even diminution of the gift to it; (2) in the case of those of more limited means, the Committee's advertising invariably puts the claims of the parish or mission first; (3) calling attention to the needs of the Fund is in connection with a reminder of the duty to favor the Church, in some one or more of its many needs, by Will, and stimulates giving which might otherwise not occur, to the potential benefit of parish or mission as well as of the Fund.

Regarding the value of the assessment as a reminder of the existence of the Episcopate, we point out that (1) relatively few of a congregation outside of the vestry are concerned with the assessment; if it appears among the figures given in connection with an Every-Member Canvass these are soon out of mind; (2) there are many other, and better, ways, of keeping the Episcopate before the congregation; (3) the assessment has at times in the past and may again, bear heavily upon the less prosperous congregations; (4) default in the payment of assessment in difficult times may result in a reduction of the amount of needed episcopal man-power.

Coming now to the activities of the Committee in the past year, we have continued our page advertisement in the Church News, and have supplemented it with occasional articles descriptive of the Fund; given a dinner for clergy on April 29, 1952, and one for presidents of Women's Auxiliaries on January 26, 1953; and conducted two entertainments to advertise the Fund; an address by Robert A. Vogeler May 20, 1952 on his captivity in a Soviet satellite; and the Trapp Family Singers in a program of Christmas music December 12, 1952. A third entertainment will have taken place before this Report is circulated: a recital April 17, 1953 by Charles Laughton at the Academy of Music. These entertainments are regularly announced as under the auspices of the Committee and for the benefit of the Fund. They are promoted and managed by Mrs. Birchall Hammer and Miss Frances Sappington, of the Committee, with the able assistance of Miss Mildred Mathers of the Church House staff.

By next autumn we hope to have published a new edition, (the third) of our booklet giving the history of the Fund and a comparison of it with like Funds in some other dioceses. By autumn also we expect to have ready, for use by parishes and missions which may desire to help our advertising, an envelope designed by Mr. John Falkner Arndt of the Committee, calling attention to the Fund.

We deeply regret the loss by death of six valued members of the Committee: Frederic L. Ballard, Mrs. S. Naudain Duer, W. A. M. Fuller, Samuel F. Houston, Shippen Lewis, Frank H. Moss; and of one by resignation: Mrs. George Woodward. There have been added to the Committee Mr. C. Newbold Taylor and Mrs. Thomas N. Walker, and to the Executive Committee these two and Mr. D. Alexander Wieland.

The Committee has word of two bequests not yet realized, both by members of the Committee: Mr. Samuel F. Houston and Mr. Frank H. Moss. A report of the amount realized from these will appear next year. We have received also a number of unsolicited gifts from individuals and from Church organizations:

St. Thomas', Whitemarsh	156.31
Ten per cent. of Confirmation offerings	854.58
Total	$34,006.00

The principal of the Fund stood at $294,470.74 as of December 31, 1952, and at $310,335.90 as of March 15, 1953.

It is our hope that when this Report is presented by title any who may wish to question the usefulness of the Fund or the methods of the Committee will make themselves heard. Presentation by title does not foreclose comment. We welcome suggestions as to method, and we much desire a full discussion if those who may be opposed to the general object and purpose of the Fund wish to be heard.

For the Committee,

SPENCER ERVIN,

Vice-Chairman and Treasurer.

APPENDIX J

REPORT OF THE REGISTRAR

The canonical duties of the Registrar have been duly performed throughout the year; and numerous requests for certificates of Holy Baptism, and of Marriages and Burials, from the registers of closed parishes, have been complied with, insofar as the records were available.

The attention of all officers of Diocesan Organizations and Institutions, and of Vestries of parishes, is called to the importance of preserving the official books of record and other documentary papers of said organizations. In case of dissolution, the said books and papers should be turned over to the Registrar as soon as possible thereafter for permanent storage in the Church House vault.

Insurance

Mission Properties

A total of $2,722,395 fire insurance with extended coverage is now in force on 35 Mission properties in the Diocese.

This insurance is placed with the Church Fire Insurance Corporation and periodic reviews are made by that Corporation of sound insurable values, giving effect to changes in building costs and improvements. The Church Foundation has been authorized by the Executive Council of the Diocese to keep the insurance up to 80% of sound insurable value, and we are indicating the cases in which the insurance has been increased since our last report.

In addition, the Mission Properties are insured against Public Liability $10,000-$20,000 limits, and wherever there are pressure vessels which must be inspected according to law Boiler Insurance is in force.

Church House

The fire insurance with extended coverage on the Church House, 202 West Rittenhouse Square, Philadelphia, was increased

Funds

The Church Foundation is managing a total of 157 funds. Of these, 118 funds are invested in the Consolidated Fund, 3 funds are invested in the newly created Consolidated Legal Fund, 13 funds are separately invested, making 134 invested funds. The remaining 23 funds consist of building funds, savings funds, property rentals, and a fund in which income only is received.

Consolidated Fund

In the 118 funds participating in the Consolidated Fund, there were a total of 246,390 units outstanding as of March 5, 1953. The cost of these units was $2,661,197.58, or an average of $10.80 per unit. These funds are grouped below in accordance with size and amounts.

Consolidated Legal Fund

The Church Foundation is Trustee for three funds which are restricted to legal investments for trust funds. Although the powers of investment have recently been liberalized by statute of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, it is still a difficult task to invest such small funds separately and provide proper diversification. The Board of Directors have now established a Consolidated Legal Fund into which all funds restricted to legal investments may be invested, or any other funds where the purpose may be to invest the fund conservatively. The original unit value is $10.00 as of March 5, 1953 for the funds invested in the Consolidated Legal Fund, and appraisals will be made quarterly thereafter when new funds will be accepted. It is hoped that there will be a demand by churches and institutions in the Diocese for use of the Consolidated Legal Fund.

The Consolidated Legal Fund was established as of March 5, 1953 with the following funds participating:

*Church of the Atonement, Morton, Alexander H. McCauley Fund
Church Farm School, Rhinelander Fund
Elmes Fund for the City Mission

These funds are restricted to legal investments for trust funds in the opinion of council.

* New Funds since the last report
 Previously restricted to legal investments

APPENDIX L

REPORT OF THE CATHEDRAL CHAPTER

The past year has been one of real growth and interest in the work at the Cathedral. The many new homes so closely built nearby have brought new people, not only from other Philadelphia districts but also from other States and far off places, who have looked to the Cathedral for religious ministrations. It has necessitated giving them spiritual care and oversight, or else losing them to Churches of other Communions in the neighborhood. Parents, with young children, are not prone today to go even a mile or two to Church, when the convenience of another Church only a few blocks away serves their desires.

The result has been, under the good ministrations of the Priest, the Rev. Mr. Witmer who lives on the Cathedral grounds, the building up of a Congregation that has shown devotion and enterprise. Already a house has been adapted to the needs of a Church School and for meetings of groups interested in every phase of Church work. The attendance at all services has increased considerably and a truly Missionary work is being furthered at the Cathedral.

The death of Mr. Samuel F. Houston, Senior Lay Canon, just one year ago, was a real loss to the Chapter. Mr. Houston, however, left a substantial sum of money in trust for carrying on the work in future years. Another substantial bequest has come to the Cathedral, showing there is continuing interest in this Diocesan project. There is great need of securing sufficient funds to augment these several bequests now held by the Chapter, so as to increase the seating capacity of the Cathedral and to build an Assembly building to house the many Diocesan activities that should be established for the growing life of the Diocese at the Cathedral Church.

Respectfully submitted,

APPENDIX M

REPORT OF THE COMMISSION ON RECTORS' SALARIES AND PENSIONS

The work of the Commission has to do with two important duties in order that the Parishes may function through the leadership of the rectors receiving at least the minimum salary each month as fixed by the Convention and that their pensions shall be safe guarded for future need. The first responsibility has been ably discharged by the successive members of the Commission for sixty-six years and the second duty likewise ever since the Pension Fund was established by the Church.

During the long years from 1887 many Parishes have had the salaries of the rectors augmented from the Sustentation Fund administered by the Commission thereby allowing the work of the Parish to go on through lean financial periods, extending from a year to a much longer period. Last year we found the aided Parishes to be but six and we are glad to report that only four Parishes have need of the Rector's salary being augmented to the canonical figure.

We would, however, bring to the attention of the vestries once more, the necessity of every Church keeping up to date the pension premiums due on their clergyman's salary. Not only must interest be paid on arrearages, but when these are six months behind, such a situation on the part of even one Parish, jeopardizes the payment of a thousand dollars to the widow of a deceased clergyman. Were it not for the constant watching of the monthly reports of pension premiums paid and the occasional necessity of making up such arrearages widows of our clergy would sometimes find themselves denied this full sum usually so needed at such a time. The Commission has usually been repaid by the vestries and does expect it. Both the salary and the pension premiums should have first claim on the income of a church.

Your Commission believes that this work can be fully sustained by the amount of $6,000.00, the same as last year and the lowest figure in most of the sixty-six years, and therefore asks the Convention to premit an assessment on all Parishes and Missions for the year 1954 for that amount, presenting the following resolution:

RESOLVED, That the Commission on Rectors' Salaries and Pensions be authorized to assess for the work of the Commission for the year 1954, the sum of $6,000.00.

Respectfully submitted,

JAMES M. NIBLO

Chairman.

APPENDIX N

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON CANONS

The Department of Christian Social Relations has submitted to the Committee on Canons a sub-paragraph and certain other provisions which the Department proposes as a substitute for Canon VI, Sec. II, sub-paragraph 3 (c) of the Diocesan Canons. The original draft of the substitution read:

This would replace Canon VI, of the Executive Council, Section II, 3 (c).

(c) The Department of Christian Social Relations shall encourage and promote all branches of social service work and programs of social relations in the Diocese. Its specific duties shall be as follows:

(1) Carry on such social service work and programs of social relations as the Convention and/or Executive Council shall from time to time assign to it.

(2) Foster the work of health and welfare agencies related to the Church in whatever manner the Bishop may deem expedient, especially in their relationships to the clergy, the parishes and to the community.

(3) Interest and enlist the Church people of the Diocese in the study and remedy of social conditions, social needs, and social problems.

(4) Perform the duties outlined above in close cooperation with local and national agencies for social welfare, both secular and religious; except that in performing its duties the Department shall work in cooperation only with those agencies approved in each instance by the Bishop and a majority of the total Department membership.

The Committee on Canons has considered the proposed enactment, and herewith submits its report and recommendations.

It was generally agreed that the proposed law as drafted by the Department contained certain clauses in it which are not proper for inclusion in Canons. The Committee on Canons agreed that certain of the provisions of the proposed law (such as (3) etc.) relate merely to advice and suggestion, are therefore unenforcable as law, and quite improper material for Canons.

It was the opinion of a majority of the Committee on Canons that a redraft of the Department's proposal, incorporating general directives as to the functions, authority, and purposes of the Department, is actually what the Department seeks to attain. This Committee has made a redraft of the Proposed substitution, incorporating in it certain of those provisions suggested by the Department, which, in the opinion of the Committee on Canons, are proper materials for Canons.

It is moved to rescind sub-paragraph 3 (c), Section II, Canon VI of the 1951 Diocesan Canons, which reads as follows:

> "(c) The Department of Christian Social Relations shall carry on such social service work and program of social relations as the Convention shall from time to time assign to it."

It is further moved to enact the following legislation in substitution for sub-paragraph 3 (c), Section II, of Canon VI of the 1951 Code:

> (c) The Department of Christian Social Relations shall carry on and promote all phases of social (including health) work and programs of social relations in this Diocese, subject to the Diocesan Convention, or the Bishop and Executive Council. The Department is herewith empowered to perform these duties in close cooperation with national and local social welfare agencies, both secular and religious;
> PROVIDED that cooperation be limited to those agencies which shall have been approved by the Bishop and a majority of the total membership of the Department.

The Committee on Canons moves the adoption of the above substitute legislation for sub-Paragraph 3 (c), Section II, Canon VI of the 1951 Code.

Respectfully submitted,

(Rev.) RALPH E. COONRAD, Chairman

Report of Committee on Incorporation to the Diocesan Convention—May 5, 1953

I. Respecting The Incorporation of New Parishes.

The Committee on Incorporation has considered the application of the CHURCH OF THE HOLY NATIVITY IN PHILADELPHIA, 2101 Sixty-Fifth Avenue, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, to become an incorporated parish.

The Committee finds that the proposed Articles of Incorporation are in substantial conformity with the approved form of Articles of Incorporation. The Committee also finds that the Bishop and Standing Committee have approved the written application of the CHURCH OF THE HOLY NATIVITY IN PHILADELPHIA for consent to the formation of the parish as required by the Canons.

Your Committee therefore offers the following resolution:

RESOLVED that the CHURCH OF THE HOLY NATIVITY IN PHILADELPHIA be admitted into union with the Convention but without vote at this Convention; that the proposed Articles of Incorporation of the CHURCH OF THE HOLY NATIVITY IN PHILADELPHIA be approved by the Convention and that permission be given to apply to the proper court to grant the same.

II. Respecting Formal Amendments to Articles of Incorporation by Court Proceedings.

The Committee on Incorporation has considered the application of THE RECTOR, CHURCH WARDENS AND VESTRYMEN OF ST. PAUL'S, CHESTER IN DELAWARE COUNTY for its approval of certain proposed amendments to their Articles of Incorporation.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON PAROCHIAL HISTORY

This committee is one of the permanent committees of the Convention started almost 100 years ago, for the purpose of obtaining historical sketches of parishes. The many files of books, pamphlets, and papers now in its depository in the Church House testify to the continuing work of this committee. But its work is never done, until it has received from every parish and mission in the Diocese up-to-date information of a historical nature.

There are still many parishes that have never turned over to the committee any historical material whatever. No history of the Diocese can be complete without this. Parishes celebrating anniversaries this year will please remember to send copies of historical booklets to the committee.

Respectfully submitted,

J. WESLEY TWELVES, Chairman

REPORT OF THE COMMISSION ON MUSIC

The Commission on Music of the Diocese of Pennsylvania reports the following projects during the past season:

A Junior Choir Festival was held on April 27th directed by Newell Robinson.

The first Festival of Adult Choirs was held on May 28th under the direction of Ernest Willoughby.

The Commission was in charge of the music at the Presentation Service of the Mite Box Offering at the Episcopal Academy.

The Diocesan Choir sang at the Diocesan Presentation Service of the United Thank Offering and at the Mass Meeting of the Annual Convention of the Diocese.

The Commission had charge of the music for the Tenth Anniversary Service of the Consecration of Bishop Hart at the Academy of Music. A choir of one hundred voices sang.

We held a conference for clergy, organists and choirmasters on October 21st.

Mr. Ray Brown of the General Theological Seminary led the conference on "Liturgy and Music: the Good and the Practical."

The Commission sent a copy of "Music for Weddings," published by the Joint Commission on Church Music, to all the clergy of this Diocese.

An Adult Choir Festival is now being planned to take place on November 4th in the Church of the Holy Trinity, Philadelphia.

The Commission offers the following resolution:

Resolved, That the Commission on Music be continued, with power to fill vacancies or to add to its membership.

APPENDIX S

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF CONTROL OF THE DIOCESAN LIBRARY

During 1952, eleven magazines were subscribed for and placed in the rack in Room 11. Eighty-nine books were purchased and placed on the shelves. An average of eighty books were out at a time, and 100 books were taken out over the summer. New, as well as timely books, were listed in the Church News; and lists of books purchased during the year were sent to all of the clergy.

During the summer, the books were cleaned and checked with the catalogue. The Library is entirely free to all clergy and laity of the Diocese, who may choose a book to check out and return at the Information Window, or with the Librarian. The catalogue is in the office of the Librarian, Room 37, third floor Church House.

It is with deep regret that we announce the passing of our faithful and efficient treasurer, Dr. W. I. Rutter. During the year, there were elected to the Board as Chairman, The Rev. Walter M. Haushalter, LLD, as Treasurer, Mr. Isaac E. Leech, and as a new member Federico F. Mauck, Esq.

Respectfully submitted,

The Rev. Walter M. Haushalter, LLD.,
Chairman of the Board

APPENDIX T

REPORT OF THE CORPORATION FOR CHRISTIAN WORK IN EDUCATIONAL INSTITUTIONS

Since the resignation of the Rev. Allen Kremer in February 1950, the work of the Corporation has been carried along by Dr. L. R. Shero of Swarthmore. During his period of leadership Dr. Shero visited most of the clergy in the college towns throughout the Diocese. In October 1952, he brought together the members of the Corporation and several of the college town clergy for a dinner meeting at St. Mary's Parish House, 3916 Locust Street, Philadelphia. This gave opportunity for those present to share their common concerns, and to tell others what type of program they carried on. The Rev. Charles Lawrence, the new Executive Secretary, was introduced to the company by Dr. Shero, and he outlined his vision of what might be accomplished in the year ahead. He stressed especially the need of conferences and retreats, probably one of each in the fall and spring, on a Diocesan basis.

Later in October a conference was held at Willow Grove Farm for Episcopal students in the Diocese. Canon Martin, Headmaster of St. Albans School, Washington, D. C. led the group in their study of the questions "Why Go to Church?" and "The Purpose of Divine Worship." Twenty-two attended. New officers for Diocesan Canterbury were elected for 1953, John Cole, President and Paul Raudenbush, Secretary-Treasurer, both of the University of Pennsylvania.

The Executive Secretary wrote the fourteen college clergy for dates to visit their churches and student groups, if any. Only a few replied, and visits were arranged. In November he visited St. Paul's, Chester, and spoke to the Women's Auxiliary. Several more visits will be made this spring. Within the next year all college clergy and Canterbury Clubs will be visited.

On March 1, 1953, a retreat was held in the Y.P.F. House, Whitemarsh, Pa. Only eight students attended, but those who did come found the 24 hour period of withdrawal and refreshment very rewarding. This was led by the Executive Secretary and the subject was "Teachings of Christ in the Sermon on the Mount Applied to Our Everyday Living."

The term of three officers of the Corporation came to an end this May, and we wish to thank them for their service. Dr. L. R. Shero, Dr. Dallas E. Buzby and Dr. Franklin Joiner are retiring off the Corporation. Mr. Howard Kellogg, Mr. Eric McCouch and the Rev. Edward R. Harris have been nominated to fill their places.

One of the things the Corporation can do most profitably is to encourage vestries of parishes in college towns to select a clergyman when a vacancy occurs who will be keen on work with students and will appeal to young men and women. As a full time Chaplain to students is possible at only one place, the University of Pennsylvania, parochial clergy must take an active interest in this missionary work in all the other college centers. Responsibility for each educational institution has been given to a nearby priest. The main job must be done locally.

Respectfully submitted,

CHARLES K. C. LAWRENCE

Executive Secretary.

APPENDIX U

REPORT OF THE PHILADELPHIA COUNCIL OF CHURCHES

For the past seven years, the Philadelphia Council of Churches has been writing an exciting and inspiring adventure in interdenominational cooperation—an adventure in which Protestant laymen working shoulder to shoulder with their ministers have strengthened the whole Protestant movement in this area—thru the application of sound business procedures in the total Protestant planning.

Every business man who is worth his salt—knows that while competition may be the life of trade, cooperation is its very heart. In religion as in business, there are many areas in which one may properly cooperate with others in doing those things that are to the advantage of all. In the religious field, this can be and is being done without impairing ones allegiance to his own denomination or without infringement upon the religious doctrine or customs of any denomination.

This fact, once so widely questioned—has not been so universally accepted by the Protestant churches of this area as to make possible a sound basic understanding and acceptance of the importance of this ecumenical movement to the healthy and continuous growth of Protestant churches here.

I assume everyone here today knows that the Philadelphia Council of Churches does only those things which the churches are not equipped to do for themselves, and even then, undertakes to do so only upon direction of its member churches acting thru the Council's Board of Directors.

Considerations of your time here and now do not permit a detailed review of the many services, by the Philadelphia Council of Churches for its member churches, anyone of which would make an interesting story. If you have not already obtained a copy of the Seventh Annual Report of the Council for the year ending March 31, 1953, such copies are available upon request from the Council office.

With a staff of fifteen persons and a budget last year of $80,580 the Council has completed its seventh year of service. Financially, it is in the black—not by much, mind you, but growing each year in usefulness on a pay-as-you-go basis.

From this Annual Report of which I speak and out of my personal experience, I do want to quickly share with you the details of one of its many successful cooperative adventures—this one in the field of Research and Planning.

Some months ago, I met with Bishop Armstrong, and reviewed with him a plan under which there was formed a Department of Research and Planning, thru which upon a completely voluntary basis, agreement might be reached by many denominations upon the churching of new or unchurched areas. Of course, such a program required an objective evaluation of all the factors involving religious surveys and censuses, collecting social, economic, religious statistics and data, interpreting the data in the interest of religion, providing counseling service to churches with building projects and program problems. For this purpose, the Council, thru this Department of Research and Planning, obtained the full-time services of a specialist in this field.

Already, the value of this interdenominational cooperation has made itself felt magnificently in the rapid development of the Bucks County area as well as elsewhere. To date the recommendations of this Department have all been accepted by the 14 denominations, which are members of the Department.

I would not be here today speaking about this latest cooperative service of the Council if it were not for the support which this service has had from our bishops.

Without the leadership of Bishop Hart and Bishop Armstrong, the Department of Research and Planning would never have come into being. Since it opened officially on September 1, 1952, Bishop Armstrong has been present at each session to lend the counsel and wisdom of his experience to the complex problems constantly facing that group of leaders.

No, we Episcopalians have not given up our right to build a church wherever and whenever we want, but now we can make our judgments on the basis of a sound business-like approach.

Under such circumstances, we are not likely to let the spirit of competition blind us to the wisdom of cooperation. Moveover, under such circumstances, we are not likely to make costly mistakes.

This is of the very nature of the adventure of which I speak. I commend all of you for your contribution to this forward march of the ecumenical movement.

Thank you.

ALBERT J. NESBITT

APPENDIX V

PROPOSITION TO AMEND ARTICLE IX, SEC. 1 OF THE DIOCESAN CONSTITUTION

The Proposition has been again submitted to the Convention by three Presbyters of this Diocese to the effect that Article IV, Sec. 1, the first sentence which reads

"The Convention shall be composed of Clergymen and Laymen."

shall be amended to read

"The Convention shall be composed of Clergymen and Lay Persons."

The proposers of this amendment wish to assure that women of the Church shall receive recognition, and that they therefore be entitled to a voice and vote in the affairs of the Church equal with that of men.

This proposition was received less than 30 days ago (less than the Canonical time for receiving such propositions—by Sec. 1 of Canon XXII), but by order of the President of the Convention we report on the proposition.

Little can be said now which was not said last year on the same proposition. However, Sec. II, paragraph 2, of Canon IV—which concerns the Committee on Canons—states that proposals to alter the Constitution and Canons shall be submitted to this Committee, with the proviso that proposals to alter or add to the Constitution and Canons of this Diocese "shall have been recommended by a special committee of the Convention." The Committee on Canons is to determine, according to the Canon, whether or not such proposals conflict with "the Constitution and Canons of the Diocese or of the General Convention."

I would raise a question of Order as to whether or not the authors of the Proposals, last year and now, constitute a "special Committee of the Convention," in fulfillment of the requirements of Canon IV, Sec. II, paragraph 2.

In any case, the Committee on Canons pointed out last year that the General Convention's Constitution and Canons on this same matter, as interpreted by Edwin Augustine White in his Constitution and Canons for the Government of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the United States of America, construed "Laymen" and "Layman" to mean "male communicants of this Church," and none other, and, further, that the pronoun "him" in Canon 1 of the General Canons but emphasizes this point. The Diocesan Canon (IV, II, 2) provides that proposals submitted to the Committee on Canons be examined to see that they do not "conflict with any provision of the Constitution and Canons of the Diocese or of the General Convention." The Committee reported last year that the words of Article IV, sentence 1 of the Diocesan Code may be changed from "Laymen" to "Lay Persons." And the decision still rests with this Convention. But we must also point out to you, that this change is at variance, possibly in conflict, with the provisions of the General Convention's accepted interpretation as late as 1952 for its Constitution and Canons on the same subject. It is possible that Diocesan Conventions can make for themselves certain Constitutional and Canonical arrangements which may be at variance with the General Code but not be in conflict with that Code, but it would appear that when the Diocesan Canon concerning procedure of the Committee on Canons makes it mandatory that this Committee point out to you any "conflict" between the proposals and the Code of the General Convention, that its opinion stands. If this Convention desires to be in "conflict" with the General Code, the responsibility rests squarely on the shoulders of this Convention.

Your Committee on Canons has now discharged its responsibilities.

Respectfully submitted,

RALPH E. COONRAD, Chairman
